Detailed description: This is a musical score for a song, likely from a 19th-century collection. It consists of three systems of music. Each system has a vocal line (treble and bass staves) and a piano accompaniment (grand staff). The key signature is B-flat major (two flats). The first system shows the vocal line with lyrics 'Nay I fear not the fi - res dead, Kindred scat - tered, slain or fled.' The piano part features a 'cresc.' marking and a 'mf' dynamic. The second system continues the vocal line with 'pale face so, Nay I fear not the pale face so, They are kind, deal'. The piano part has a 'dim.' marking. The third system shows 'not the blow that kindles fire with in their breast' followed by a repeat sign and 'Ar - rows thy'. The piano part has a 'dim.' marking and a 'p' dynamic. There are two 'Tempo I?' markings in the third system. The score is written in a clear, professional style with standard musical notation.
