ALLAN MACBETH.

Allegretto.

The musical score is written for piano and violin. It begins with a key signature of two flats (B-flat major) and a 3/4 time signature. The tempo is marked Allegretto. The piano part (left hand) features a rhythmic accompaniment of eighth and sixteenth notes, often in a descending or ascending pattern. The violin part (right hand) has a melodic line with slurs and accents. Dynamics include f (forte) and p (piano). The score is divided into three systems, each with four measures. The first system starts with a piano introduction in the piano part, marked p. The second and third systems continue the melodic and rhythmic development.

First system of musical notation. The bass staff begins with a measure containing a '2' above the staff. The first staff has a 'cresc.' marking. The piano accompaniment in the grand staff also features a 'cresc.' marking.

Second system of musical notation. The first staff includes 'rit.' and 'pizz.' markings. The piano accompaniment includes 'rit.', 'sfa tempo', and 'pa tempo' markings. A 'Ped.' marking is present below the piano staff.

Third system of musical notation. The first staff includes 'arco' and 'p' markings. The piano accompaniment includes 'p', 'pp', and 'pa tempo' markings.

Fourth system of musical notation. Both the first and piano accompaniment staves include 'rit.' markings.
