Meno mosso. Enter shopping girls.

The first system of the musical score consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written on a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of two flats (B-flat major). It contains five measures of whole notes, all of which are rests, indicating that the vocalists have not yet entered. The piano accompaniment is written on two staves (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of two flats. It begins with a series of chords and eighth notes in the right hand, while the left hand plays a steady eighth-note bass line. The tempo is marked 'Meno mosso'.

The second system continues the musical score. The vocal line enters in the second measure with the lyrics 'We're tire-less pets with-out re-grets or'. The piano accompaniment continues with a similar pattern of chords and eighth notes. The tempo remains 'Meno mosso'. Dynamic markings include 'mp' (mezzo-piano) in the piano part and 'stacc.' (staccato) in the vocal part.

The third system of the musical score features the vocal line continuing with the lyrics 'dis-ap-point-ed passions, We're free to flit a-bout a bit And'. The piano accompaniment maintains its rhythmic pattern. The tempo is still 'Meno mosso'.

The fourth system of the musical score features the vocal line continuing with the lyrics 'fol-low up the fash-ions; We love to chase from place to place Where'. The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern. The tempo remains 'Meno mosso'.
