The score is organized into six staves, each representing a different voice or part of the ensemble. The first staff begins with a measure containing a sixteenth note followed by a rest. The second staff starts with a sixteenth note followed by an eighth note. The third staff begins with an eighth note followed by a sixteenth note. The fourth staff starts with a sixteenth note followed by a quarter note. The fifth staff begins with a quarter note followed by an eighth note. The sixth staff begins with an eighth note followed by a sixteenth note. The music is written in common time, indicated by the 'C' symbol at the beginning of each staff.

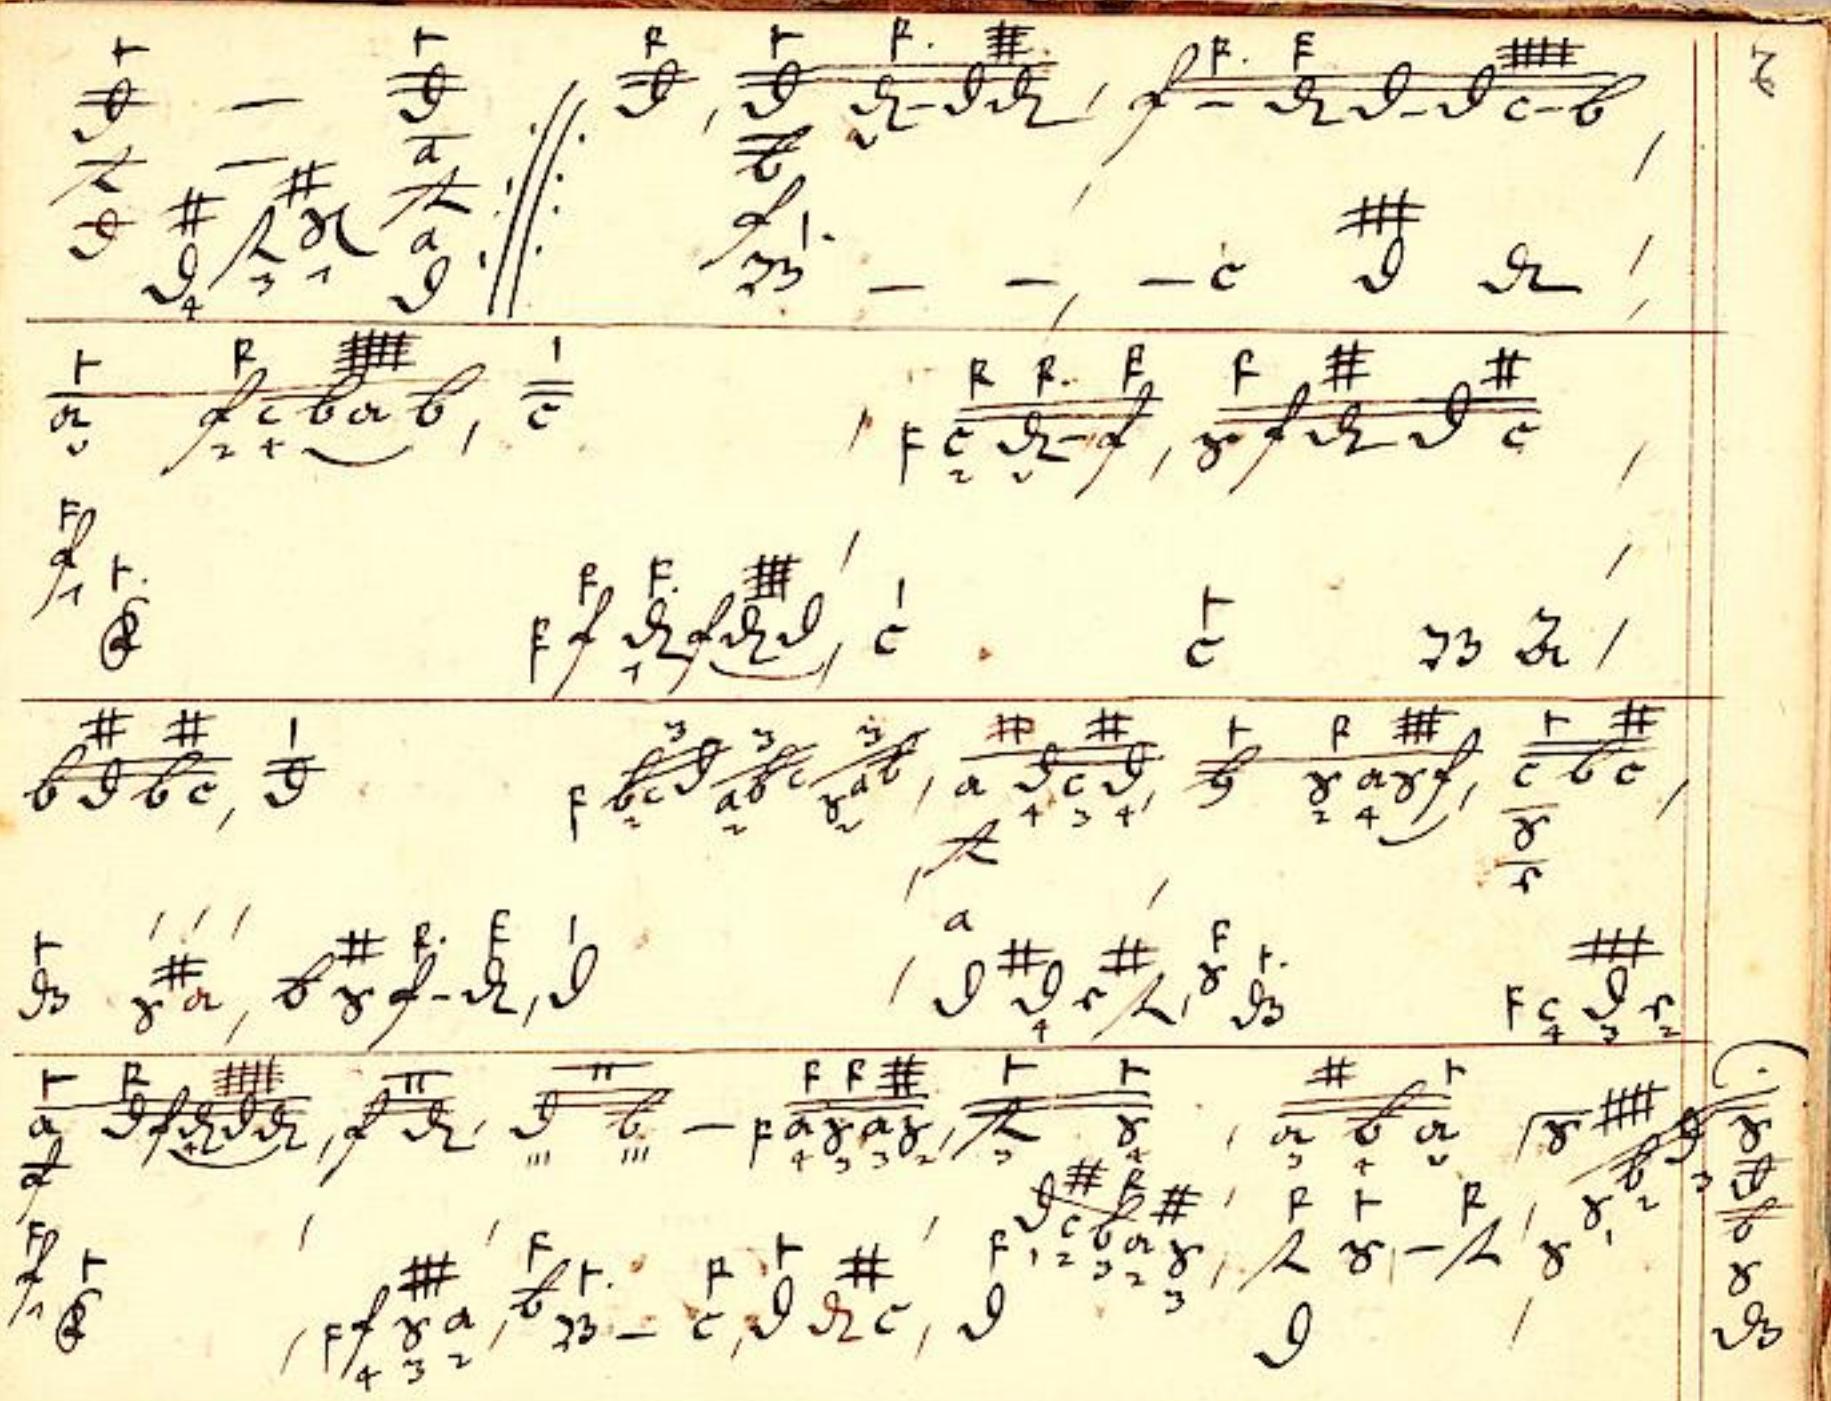

Prälude
 G moll. 6

The score consists of five staves of handwritten musical notation for organ. The notation includes various note heads (e.g., F, G, A, B, C, D, E), rests, and dynamic markings such as f, ff, and fff. The first staff begins with a forte dynamic and features a melodic line with grace notes. The second staff contains a series of eighth-note chords. The third staff includes a measure with sixteenth-note patterns. The fourth staff shows a sustained note followed by a rhythmic pattern. The fifth staff concludes with a final dynamic marking and a rest.
