P R E F A C E.

THE author of the following original tunes wished to get some person better educated than himself to write a preface or introduction to his little work; but on reflection it occurred to him that he could tell the public all about it as well as any one else; so he concluded to make the attempt. He is, however, fully aware of the difficulties attendant upon an attempt to appear successfully as an author before a scrutinizing and discerning public, especially when unaided by the influence of wealth, or a long list of influential friends; and whatever may be the fate of this production, he feels that he must stem the current of public opinion alone. Add to this the circumstance of having been born, not only in obscurity, but being descended from that unfortunate and proscribed people, the Indians, with whose name a considerable portion of the enlightened American people are unwilling to associate even the shadow of anything like talent, virtue, or genius, and as being wholly incapable of any improvement, either moral, mental, or physical, and the wonder will cease to be a wonder. In view of all these disadvantages, it is not without great diffidence that he attempts to appear at the bar of public opinion, not knowing but JUDGE PREJUDICE may preside, and condemn his work to the deep and silent shades of everlasting oblivion, without even a hearing. Should this be its fate with the generality of the public, still he thinks he has a claim upon a certain portion of the Christian public, he means his brethren of the Methodist Episcopal Church: for if there be any meaning in that clause of our excellent Discipline which recommends the "employing of members in preference to others; helping each other in business, &c.," the author feels that he has a claim upon them, and he humbly trusts, judging from Christian feelings, that that claim will not be wholly disregarded. The work now offered to the public, small as it is, has occupied the attention of the author for the space of seven years; and it may not be amiss to state, that it was not until the year 1836 that he first commenced trying to learn, scientifically, the art of singing; in the acquirement of which, from that time to the present, he has had to encounter and overcome the difficulties attending the same alone, and unaided by any instruction, except what he could obtain by simply reading the rules contained in the few musical works to which he has had access. From these works he has been enabled, under the blessing of God, to obtain that amount of theoretical knowledge in music which has prompted him to offer this little volume to the public.

The author had inserted in his original manuscript a number of airs which have been long in use among the Brothertown Indians, which it was thought inexpedient to publish, as it might interfere with the rights of the authors of those tunes. Had it occurred sooner to the author of these original melodies, he would have solicited from several well-known authors permission to copy into this work a few tunes from each of their published works, as they contain some which would grace any volume of music in which they might be inserted: and should this work be favorably received by the public, so that the author should feel encouraged to add a supplement in future, he will take the earliest opportunity to solicit permission to insert a few of those tunes in such supplement.

The author has not inserted any rudiments of the art of music in this work, principally for the reason that he could do no more than copy from some other author: and it is his desire and intention, if he should hereafter publish anything of the kind, to offer it in some respects on a new plan, adapted to the capacities of children. He will therefore do no more at present than state some of the reasons which induced him to offer this little volume to the public. The first is, that no "son of the forest," to his knowledge, has ever undertaken a task of the kind. Secondly, he is feeble in health, and has a family of seven in number to provide for. Thirdly, the cause of missions, and other religious and charitable institutions, lie very near his heart, and he is frequently solicited to aid in donations for these purposes; but having to contend with poverty, hitherto he has been able to do but very little for these institutions, but would willingly and cheerfully do more were he in possession of the means. And here he begs to be excused for stepping a little aside from the path generally traveled by authors, and telling "the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth." He has never known authors to acknowledge their desire of making money by their publications: they generally wind up by declaring, that if such and such an object has been "secured," they feel amply repaid for all their toils. Not so with the author of the Indian Melodies: he feels willing to acknowledge openly and frankly the truth, and he assures his friends and the public, that notwithstanding all other ends which may result from the publication of this work, his object is to make a little knowledge of the Redeemer and his kingdom throughout the world.

money, whereby he may be enabled, by wise and prudent management, to provide for the comfortable subsistence of his household, and be enabled, from time to time, to cast in his mite to aid in relieving the wants and distresses of the poor and needy, and to spread the N. B. In this work the air, or leading part, is found in every instance the first above the bass.

NAMES OF TUNES IN THIS WORK.

As the tunes in this book are the work of an Indian, it has been thought proper by the author to have it all of a piece. The tunes therefore will be found to assume the names of noted Indian chiefs, Indian females, Indian names of places, &c. This has been done merely as a tribute of respect to the memory of some tribes that are now nearly if not quite extinct; also as a mark of courtesy to some tribes with whom the author is acquainted.

INDIAN MELODIES.

PEQUOT. S. M.

Words by Dr. Watts.

The musical score consists of three staves of music. The top two staves are in common time (indicated by a '2') and the bottom staff is in 2/4 time. The key signature is one sharp, indicating G major. The music is composed of eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics are written below the bottom staff.

Come, sound his praise abroad, And hymns of glo - ry sing: Je - ho - vah is the sov'reign God, The u - ni - ver - sal King.

Let all who truly bear The bleeding Saviour's name, Their faithful hearts with us prepare, And eat the Paschal Lamb—And eat the Paschal Lamb.

Fa - ther, I dare be - lieve Thee mer-ci - ful and true ; Thou wilt my guilty soul for-give, My fall - en soul re - new.

And am I born to die? To lay this bo - dy down? And must my trembl - ing spi - rit fly In - to a world unknown?

HYMN 452.

HURON. S. M.

Blest be the tie that binds Our hearts in Christian love; The fel - low - ship of kindred minds Is like to that a - bove.

Blest are the sons of peace, Whose hearts and hopes are one ; Whose kind de - signs to serve and please Through all their ac - tions run—Through all their ac - tions run.

Blest is the pious house
Where zeal and friendship meet,
Their songs of praise, their mingled vows,
Make their communion sweet.

Thus on the heavenly hills
The saints are blest above,
Where joy, like morning dew, distils,
And all the air is love.

Glo - ry to God on high; Our peace is made with Heav'n; The Son of God came down to die, That we might be for - giv'n—That we might be for - giv'n,

His precious blood was shed,
His body bruised for sin;
Remember this in eating bread,
And this in drinking wine.

Approach his royal board,
In his rich garments clad;
Join every tongue to praise the Lord,
And every heart be glad.

The Father gives his Son;
The Son his flesh and blood:
The Spirit applies, and faith puts on
The righteousness of God.

Lord, in the strength of grace, With a glad heart and free, My - self, my re - si - due of days,

I con - se - crate to thee— I con - se - erate to thee.

Lord, in the strength of grace,
With a glad heart and free,
Myself, my residue of days,
I consecrate to thee.

Thy ransom'd servant I,
Restore to thee thy own;
And from this moment live or die,
To serve my God alone.

HYMN 235.

FOX. S. M.

My Saviour's pierced side Pour'd out a dou - ble flood: By water we are pu - ri - fied, And pardon'd by his blood.

HYMN 293.

OSHKOSH. S. M.

Fa - ther, in whom we live, In whom we are, and move; The glory, power, and praise re - ceive, Of thy cre - a - ting love.

Al - migh - ty Ma - ker, God, How glo - rious is thy name! Thy won - ders how diffused a - broad,

Throughout ere - a - tion's frame! Throughout ere - a - tion's frame!

In native white and red
The rose and lily stand,
And free from pride, their beauties spread,
To show thy skilful hand.

The lark mounts up the sky,
With unambitious song;
And bears her Maker's praise on high,
Upon her artless tongue.

Fain would I rise and sing
To my Creator too;
Fain would my heart adore my King,
And give him praises due.

O Je - sus! full of grace, To thee I make my moan, Let me a - gain be - hold thy face, Call home thy ban - ish'd one—Call home thy ban - ish'd one.

Again my pardon seal,
Again my soul restore,
And freely my backslidings heal,
And bid me sin no more.

Wilt thou not bid me rise?
Speak, and my soul shall live;
Forgive, my gasping spirit cries,
Abundantly forgive.

For thine own mercy's sake
Relieve my wretchedness,
And O my pardon give me back,
And give me back my peace!

O come, and dwell in me, Spi - rit of pow'r with - in: And bring the glo - rious li - ber - ty

From sor - row, fear, and sin!—From sor - row, fear, and sin!

This inward, dirc disease,
Spirit of health removc,
Spirit of finish'd holiness,
Spirit of perfect love.

Hasten the joyful day,
Which shall my sins consume ;
When old things shall be done away,
And all things new become.

I want the witness, Lord,
That all I do is right,
According to thy will and word,
Well pleasing in thy sight.

Al-migh-ty Maker, God, How glorious is thy name! Thy wonders how diffused abroad, Throughout creation's frame! Thy won - ders how dif - fused a - broad, Throughout cre - a - tion's frame!

In native white and red
The rose and lily stand,
And free from pride, their beauties spread,
To show thy skillful hand.

The lark mounts up the sky,
With unambitious song;
And bears her Maker's praise on high,
Upon her artless tongue.

Fain would I rise and sing
To my Creator too;
Fain would my heart adore my King,
And give him praises due.

Je - sus, my Truth, my Way, My sure, un - err - ing Light ; On thee my fee - ble steps I stay, Which thou wilt guide a right.

On thee my fee - ble steps I stay, Which thou wilt guide a - right.

My Wisdom and my Guide,
My Counsellor thou art ;
O never let me leave thy side,
Or from thy paths depart.

I lift mine eyes to thee,
Thou gracious bleeding Lamb,
That I may now enlighten'd be,
And never put to shame.

Never will I remove
Out of thy hands my cause ;
But rest in thy redeeming love,
And hang upon thy cross.

HYMN 455.

DELAWARE. S. M.

19

Lord of the harvest, hear Thy needy servant's cry; Answer our faith's effectual prayer, And all our wants supply—And all our wants supply.

HYMN 372.

KYOE. S. M.

Lord, in the strength of grace, With a glad heart and free, Myself, my residue of days, I consecrate to thee—I consecrate to thee.

Blest are the sons of peace, Whose hearts and hopes are one; Whose kind designs to serve and please Through all their actions run— Whose kind designs to serve and please Through all their actions run.

Blest is the pious house
Where zeal and friendship meet,
Their songs of praise, their mingled vows,
Make their communion sweet.

Thus on the heavenly hills
The saints are blest above,
Where joy, like morning dew, distils,
And all the air is love.

Allegro.

See how the morning sun Pursues his shining way; And wide proclaims his Maker's praise, With ev'ry bright'ning ray—

And wide proclaims his Maker's praise, With ev' - ry bright'ning ray.

Thus would my rising soul,
Its heavenly Parent sing;
And to its great Original,
The humble tribute bring.

Serene I laid me down,
Beneath his guardian care;
I slept, and I awoke, and found
My kind Preserver near!

My life I would anew
Devote, O Lord, to thee;
And in thy service I would spend
A long eternity.

Slow.

Give me a sober mind, A quick discerning eye, The first approach of sin to find, And all occasions fly.

BRALTON. S. M.*

1. I lift my soul to God! My trust is in his name; Let not my foes, that seek my blood, Still triumph in my shame.

2. From ear - ly dawning light, Till evening shades a - rise, For thy sal - va - tion, Lord, I wait, With e - ver - longing eyes.

Sa - viour of all, to thee we bow, And own thee faithful to thy word; We hear thy voice, and o - pen now Our hearts to en - ter - tain our Lord.

Come in, come in, thou heavenly Guest,
Delight in what thyself hast given;
On thy own gifts and graces feast,
And make the contrite heart thy heaven.

Smell the sweet odor of our prayers,
Our sacrifice of praise approve;
And treasure up our gracious tears,
Who rest in thy redeeming love.

Beneath thy shadow let us sit,
Call us thy friends, and love, and bride;
And bid us freely drink and eat
Thy dainties, and be satisfied.

When, gra-cious Lord, when shall it be
That I shall find my all in thee?
The fulness of thy pro-mise prove,
The seal of thine e - ter - nal love!—
The seal of thine e - ter - nal love?

A poor blind child I wander here,
If haply I may feel thee near :
O dark ! dark ! dark ! I still must say,
Amidst the blaze of gospel day.

Thee, only thee, I fain would find,
And cast the world and flesh behind ;
Thou, only thou, to me be given,
Of all thou hast in earth or heaven.

When from the arm of flesh set free,
Jesus, my soul, shall fly to thee :
Jesus, when I have lost my all,
I shall upon thy bosom fall.

Peace, trou - bled soul, thou need'st not fear! Thy great Pro - vi - der still is near: Who fed thee last, will feed thee still, Be calm, and sink in - to his will.

The Lord who built the earth and sky,
In mercy stoops to hear thy cry;
His promise all may freely claim,
"Ask and receive in Jesus' name."

His stores are open all, and free
To such as truly upright be;
Water and bread he'll give for food,
With all things else which he sees good.

Your sacred hairs which are so small,
By God himself are number'd all;
This truth he's publish'd all abroad,
That men may learn to trust the Lord.

The spacious firma - ment on high, With all the blue ethereal sky, And spangled heav'ns (a shining frame) Their great Original proclaim.

The morning flow'rs display their sweets, And gay their silken leaves unfold ; As careless of the noontide heats, As fearless of the evening cold.

From all that dwell be - low the skies, Let the Cre - a - tor's praise a - rise, { E - ter - nal are thy mercies, Lord, E - ter - nal
Let the Re - deemer's name be sung Through ev' - ry land, by ev'ry tongue. } truth at - tends thy word; Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore, Till suns shall rise and set no more.

truth at - tends thy word; Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore, Till suns shall rise and set no more.

Musical score for Hymn 90, 'Tuscarorah'. The score consists of four staves of music in common time (indicated by '2'). The key signature is one flat. The music features various note heads, including solid black dots, open circles, and small squares. The lyrics are written below the third staff:

Show pity, Lord, O Lord, forgive, Let a repent - ing re - bel live ; Are not thy mercies large and free ? May not a sin-ner trust in thee ?

HYMN 253.

APES. L. M.

Musical score for Hymn 253, 'Apes'. The score consists of four staves of music in common time (indicated by '2'). The key signature is two flats. The music features various note heads, including solid black dots, open circles, and small squares. The lyrics are written below the third staff:

Happy the man that finds the grace, The blessing of God's chosen race ; The wisdom coming from above, The faith that sweetly works by love.

Je-sus, thou e - ver - last - ing King, Ac - cept the tri - bute which we bring! Accept thy well - de - served re-noun, And wear our prai - ses as thy crown.

Let every act of worship be,
Like our espousals, Lord, to thee ;
Like the blest hour, when from above
We first received the pledge of love.

The gladness of that happy day,
O may it ever, ever stay !
Nor let our faith forsake its hold,
Nor hope decline, nor love grow cold !

Each following minute as it flies,
Increase thy praise, improve our joys,
Till we are raised to sing thy name,
At the great supper of the Lamb.

The spacious firma - ment on high, With all the blue e - the - real sky, And spangled heav'ns (a shining frame) Their great O - ri - gi - nal proclaim,—Their great O - ri - gi - nal pro - claim.

Th' unwearied sun from day to day,
Doth his Creator's power display,
And publishes to every land
The work of an Almighty hand.

Soon as the evening shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wond'rous tale,
And nightly to the list'ning earth
Repeats the story of her birth:
While all the stars that round her burn,
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

Lord, how se - cure and blest are they Who feel the joys of par - don'd sin! Should storms of wrath shake earth and sea, Their minds have heaven and peace with - in.

The day glides sweetly o'er their heads,
Made up of innocence and love;
And soft, and silent as the shades,
Their nightly minutes gently move.

Quick as their thoughts, their joys come on,
But fly not half so swift away:
Their souls are ever bright as noon,
And calm as summer evenings be.

How oft they look to th' heavenly hills,
Where groves of living pleasure grow!
And longing hopes, and cheerful smiles,
Sit undisturb'd upon their brow.

Sweet is the work, my God, my King, To praise thy name, give thanks and sing; To show thy love by morn - ing light, And talk of all thy truth by night.

Sweet is the day of sacred rest,
No mortal cares shall seize my breast;
O may my heart in tune be found,
Like David's harp of solemn sound.

When grace has purified my heart,
Then I shall share a glorious part;
And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
Like holy oil to cheer my head.

Then shall I see, and hear, and know,
All I desired or wish'd below;
And every power find sweet employ,
In that eternal world of joy.

HYMN 695.

MUNPONSET. L. M.

33

Again our weekly labors end, And we the sabbath's call attend ; Improve, our souls, the sacred rest, And seek to be for e - ver blest.

HYMN 355.

PONTIAC. L. M.

If now I have acceptance found With thee, or favor in thy sight, Still with thy grace and truth surround, And arm me with thy Spirit's might.

E - ter - nal depth of love di - vine, In Je - sus, God with us, display'd: How bright thy beam - ing glo - ries shine! How wide thy heal - ing streams are spread—How wide thy heal - ing streams are spread!

With whom dost thou delight to dwell?
Sinners, a vile and thankless race;
O God, what tongue aright can tell
How vast thy love, how great thy grace!

The dictates of thy sovereign will
With joy our grateful hearts receive:
All thy delight in us fulfil;
Lo! all we are to thee we give.

To thy sure love, thy tender care,
Our flesh, soul, spirit, we resign;
O fix thy sacred presence there,
And seal th' abode for ever thine.

Je - sus, the sin - ner's friend, to thee, Lost and un - done, for aid I flee: Wea - ry of earth, myself, and sin; O - pen thine arms, and take me in.

Pity and heal my sin-sick soul ;
'Tis thou alone canst make me whole ;
Fall'n, till in me thine image shine,
And lost I am till thou art mine.

Awake, the woman's conquering Seed,
Awake, and bruise the serpent's head !
Tread down thy foes, with power control
The beast and devil in my soul.

The mansion for thyself prepare,
Dispose my heart by entering there !
Here then to thee I all resign ;
Thine is the work, and only thine.

Mas - ter su - preme, I look to thee For grace and wis - dom from a - bove; Vest - ed with thy au - tho - ri - ty, En - due me with thy pa - tient love.

That taught according to thy will,
To rule my family aright,
I may th' appointed charge fulfil,
With all my heart, and all my might.

Inferiors, as a sacred trust,
I from the sovereign Lord receive,
That what is suitable and just,
Impartial I to all may give :

O'erlook them with a guardian eye ;
From vice and wickedness restrain ;
Mistakes and lesser faults pass by,
And govern with a looser rein.

My sufferings all to thee are known, Tempted in ev' - ry point like me! Re - gard my grief, re - gard thy own; Jesus, re - mem - ber Cal - va - ry! Je - sus, re - mem - ber Cal - va - ry!

sus, re - mem - ber Cal - va - ry! Je - sus, re - mem - ber Cal - va - ry!

O call to mind thy earnest prayers !
Thy agony and sweat of blood !
Thy strong and bitter cries and tears !
Thy mortal groan, " My God ! my God ! "

For whom didst thou thy cross endure ?
Who nail'd thy body to the tree ?
Did not thy death my life procure ?
O let thy bowels answer me !

Art thou not touch'd with human wo ?
Hath pity left the Son of man ?
Dost thou not all my sorrows know,
And claim a share in all my pain ?

He comes! He comes! the Judge se - vere! The se - venth trum - pet speaks him near; His light-nings flash, his thun - ders roll; How wel - come to the faith - ful soul!

From heaven angelic voices sound ;
See the almighty Jesus crown'd !
Girt with omnipotence and grace,
And glory decks the Saviour's face.

Descending on his azure throne,
He claims the kingdoms for his own ;
The kingdoms all obey his word,
And hail him their triumphant Lord !

Shout, all the people of the sky,
And all the saints of the Most High ;
Our Lord, who now his right obtains,
For ever and for ever reigns.

Lord, we are vile, con - ceived in sin, And born un - ho - ly and un - clean; Sprung from the man whose guil - ty fall Cor - rupts his race, and taints us all.

Soon as we draw our infant breath,
The seeds of sin grow up for death;
Thy law demands a perfect heart,
But we're defiled in every part.

Great God, create my heart anew,
And form my spirit pure and true;
O make me wise betimes to see
My danger and my remedy.

Behold, I fall before thy face;
My only refuge is thy grace:
No outward forms can make me clean;
The leprosy lies deep within.

Fa - ther of all, by whom we are, For whom was made what - e - ver is; Who hast en - trust - ed to our eare, A can - di - date for glo - rious bliss, A can - di - date for glo - rious bliss.

Poor worms of earth, to thee we cry,
For grace to guide what grace has given;
We ask for wisdom from on high,
To train our infant up for heaven.

We tremble at the danger near,
And crowds of wretched parents see,
Who, blindly fond, their children rear
In tempers far as hell from thee.

Themselves the slaves of sense and praise,
Their babes they pamper and admire;
And make the helpless infants pass
To murderer Moloch, through the fire.

He wills that I should ho - ly be; That ho - li - ness I long to feel; That full, di - vine con-

See, Lord, the travail of thy soul,
Accomplish'd in the change of mine ;
And plunge me, every whit made whole,
In all the depths of love divine !

On thee, O God, my soul is stay'd,
And waits to prove thine utmost will :
The promise, by thy mercy made,
Thou canst, thou wilt in me fulfil.

No more I stagger at thy power,
Or doubt thy truth, which cannot move :
Hasten the long-expected hour,
And bless me with thy perfect love.

Arm of the Lord, a - wake, a - wake! Thy own im - mor - tal strength put on! With ter - ror clothed, hell's king - dom shake, And east thy foes with fu - ry down.

As in the ancient days appear!
The sacred annals speak thy fame;
Be now omnipotently near,
To endless ages still the same.

By death and hell pursued in vain,
To thee the ransom'd seed shall come;
Shouting their heavenly Sion gain,
And pass through death triumphant home.

The pain of life shall then be o'er,
The anguish and distracting care;
There sighing grief shall weep no more,
And sin shall never enter there.

Fain would I go to thee, my God, Thy mer - cies and my wants to tell; To feel my par - don seal'd in blood: Sa - viour, thy love I wait to feel.

Freed from the power of cancell'd sin,
When shall my soul triumphant prove?
Why breaks not out the fire within,
In flames of joy, and praise, and love?

Jesus, to thee my soul aspires;
Jesus, to thee I plight my vows:
Keep me from earthly, base desires,
My God, my Saviour, and my Spouse.

Fountain of all-sufficient bliss,
Thou art the good I seek below;
Fulness of joy in thee there is;
Without, 'tis misery all, and wo.

A - way, my unbelieving fear! Fear shall in me no more have place ; My Saviour doth not yet appear, He hides the bright-ness of his face :

But shall I therefore let him go, And basely to the tempt - er yield? No, in the strength of Jesus, no, I ne - ver will give up my shield.

How do thy mer - cies close me round! For - e - ver be thy name a - dored; I blush in all things to a - bound; The ser - vant is a - bove his Lord!

Inured to poverty and pain,
A suffering life my Master led;
The Son of God, the Son of man,
He had not where to lay his head.

But lo! a place he hath prepared
For me, whom watchful angels keep;
Yea, he himself becomes my guard;
He smooths my bed, and gives me sleep.

Jesus protects; my fears begone:
What can the Rock of Ages move!
Safe in thy arms I lay me down,
Thy everlasting arms of love.

Why should we start and fear to die! What tim'rous worms we mor - tals are; Death is the gate to end - less joy, And yet we dread to en - ter there—And yet we dread to en - ter there.

The pains, the groans, the dying strife,
Fright our approaching souls away;
And we shrink back again to life,
Fond of our prison and our clay.

O, if my Lord would come and meet,
My soul would stretch her wings in haste,
Fly fearless through death's iron gate,
Nor feel the terrors as she past!

Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there.

The morn - ing flow'rs display their sweets, And gay their silk - en leaves un - fold; As care - less of the noon - tide heats, As fear - less of the evening cold—As fear-less of the evening cold.

Nipt by the wind's unkindly blast,
Parch'd by the sun's directer ray,
The momentary glories waste,
The short-lived beauties die away.

So blooms the human face divine,
When youth its pride of beauty shows:
Fairer than spring the colors shine,
And sweeter than the virgin rose.

Or worn by slowly-rolling years,
Or broke by sickness in a day,
The fading glory disappears,
The short-lived beauties die away.

E - ter-nal Source of ev'ry joy, Well may thy praise our lips employ, While in thy temple we appear, Whose goodness crowns the circling year.

God is in this and every place! But O, how dark and void! To me 'tis one great wil-der-ness, This earth without my God.

HYMN 261.

MOHAWK. C. M.

My God, the spring of all my joys, The life of my delights, The glory of my brightest days, And comfort of my nights!—And comfort of my nights!

Musical score for Hymn 488, UNCAS. C. M., featuring four staves of music in common time (indicated by '6/4'). The music consists of various note heads and stems, with some notes having horizontal dashes through them. The lyrics are printed below the third staff:

"Shepherds, rejoice, lift up your eyes, And send your fears away ; News from the regions of the skies—A Saviour's born to-day—A Saviour's born to-day."

Musical score for Hymn 343, GROTON. C. M., featuring four staves of music in common time (indicated by '2/2'). The music consists of various note heads and stems, with some notes having horizontal dashes through them. The lyrics are printed below the second staff:

O Je-sus! at thy feet we wait, Till thou shalt bid us rise; Re-stored to our un-sin-ning state, To love's sweet para-dise.

HYMN 239.

CHEROKEE. C. M.

Come, let us who in Christ be - lieve, Our common Saviour praise : To him, with joy - ful voices, give The glo - ry of his grace.

I know that my Re-deem - er lives, And e - ver prays for me: A to - ken of his love he gives, A pledge of li - ber-ty - A to - ken of his love he gives, A pledge of li - ber - ty.

I find him lifting up my head,
He brings salvation near;
His presence makes me free indeed,
And he will soon appear.

He wills that I should holy be!
What can withstand his will?
The counsel of his grace in me
He surely shall fulfil.

Jesus, I hang upon thy word;
I steadfastly believe
Thou wilt return, and claim me, Lord,
And to thyself receive.

Quick.

How happy every child of grace, Who knows his sins forgiven ! This earth, he cries, is not my place, I seek my place in heaven : A coun - try far from mor - tal sight, Yet O ! by faith I see; The land of rest, the saints' delight, The heaven prepared for me.

Quick.

Come, let us join our cheer - ful songs With an - gels round the throne; Ten thousand thou - sand are their tongues, But all their joys are one— But all their joys are one.

Worthy the Lamb that died, they cry,
To be exalted thus:
Worthy the Lamb, our hearts reply,
For he was slain for us.

Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and power divine;
And blessings more than we can give,
Be, Lord, for ever thine.

The whole creation join in one,
To bless the saered name
Of Him that sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

HYMN 1.

ANNAWON. C. M.

55

O for a thousand tongues to sing My great Re-deem-er's praise! The glo-ries of my God and King, The triumphs of his grace!

HYMN 377.

WYANDOT. C. M.

When all thy mer-cies, O my God, My ris - ing soul sur - veys; Transport-ed with the view, I'm lost In won-der, love, and praise!

See Israel's gen - tle Shepherd stand, With all-en - gag - ing charms: Hark how he calls the ten - der lambs, And folds them in his arms!—Hark how he calls the ten - der lambs, And folds them in his arms!

" Permit them to approach," he cries,
" Nor scorn their humble name :
For 'twas to bless such souls as these,
The Lord of angels came."

We bring them, Lord, in thankful hands,
And yield them up to thee ;
Joyful that we ourselves are thine,
Thine let our offspring be.

Hap - py the souls to Jesus join'd, And saved by grace a - lone; Walk - ing in all his ways, they find Their heaven on earth be - gun.

The church triumphant in thy love, Their migh-ty joys we know: They sing the Lamb in hymns above, And we in hymns be - gun.

Give me the wings of faith to rise With-in the veil, and see The saints a - bove, how great their joys, How bright their glo-ries be.

Thy ceaseless, un - ex-hau-st-ed love, Un-mer - it - ed, and free, De - lights our e - vil to re-move, And help our mi - se - ry.

When I can read my ti - tle clear To man-sions in the skies, I'll bid fare - well to ev - 'ry fear, And wipe my weep - ing eyes—And wipe my weep - ing eyes.

Should earth against my soul engage,
And fiery darts be hurl'd,
Then I can smile at Satan's rage,
And face a frowning world.

Let cares like a wild deluge come,
Let storms of sorrow fall ;
So I but safely reach my home,
My God, my heaven, my all.

There I shall bathe my weary soul,
In seas of heavenly rest,
And not a wave of trouble roll
Across my peaceful breast.

Lord, I be - lieve thy every word, Thy every pro - mise true; And lo! I wait on thee, my Lord, Till I my strength re - new.

HYMN 271.

POKANOKET. C. M.

My Saviour, my almighty friend, When I be - gin thy praise, Where will the growing numbers end? The numbers of thy grace.

Lord, all I am is known to thee; In vain my soul would try To shun thy pre - sence, or to flee The no - tice of thine eye—The no - tice of thine eye.

Thy all-surrounding sight surveys
My rising and my rest,
My public walks, my private ways,
The secrets of my breast.

My thoughts lie open to thee, Lord,
Before they're form'd within,
And ere my lips pronounce the word,
Thou know'st the sense I mean.

O wond'rous knowledge! deep and high!
Where can a creature hide ?
Within thy circling arms I lie,
Beset on every side.

Father of me and all mankind, And all the hosts above, Let every understanding mind Unite to praise thy love!—Unite to praise thy love!

HYMN 607.

Glo - ry to God the Fa - ther be, Glo - ry to God the Son, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Ho - san - na, Glo - ry to God the Ho - ly Ghost, Glo - ry to God a - lone.

My soul doth mag-ni - fy the Lord, My spi - rit doth re - joice Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Ho - san - na,
 In God my Sa-viour, and my God : I hear a joy - ful voice.

I need not go a - broad for joy, I have a feast at home; Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Ho - san - na,
 My sighs are turn - ed in - to songs, The Com - fort - er is come.

Ho - san-na, Hal - le - lu-jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Ho-san - na, Ho - san - na.

Down from above the blessed Dove,
 Is come into my breast,
 To witness God's eternal love,
 This is my heavenly feast.

This makes me Abba, Father, cry,
 With confidence of soul ;
 It makes me cry, My Lord, my God,
 And that without control.

There is a stream that issues forth
 From God's eternal throne,
 And from the Lamb, a living stream,
 Clear as a crystal stone.

* The Narragansett Indians have a tradition, that the following tune was heard in the air by them, and other tribes bordering on the Atlantic coast, many years before the arrival of the whites in America; and that on their first visiting a church in Plymouth Colony, after the settlement of that place by the whites, the same tune was sung while performing divine service, and the Indians knew it as well as the whites. The tune therefore is preserved among them to this day, and is sung to the words here set.

Jesus, shall I ne - ver be Firm - ly grounded u - pon thee? Never by thy work abide? Never in thy wounds reside?

Depth of mer - ey! can there be Mer - ey still reserved for me? Can my God his wrath for - bear, Me, the chief of sin - ners, spare?

God of love, that hear'st the prayer, Kindly for thy people care ; Who on thee alone depend : Love us, save us to the end—Love us, save us to the end.

Lord, we come be - fore thee now, At thy feet we hum-bly bow ; O do not our suit dis - dain ; Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain ?

Ye who faint beneath the load
Of sin, your heads lift up;
See your great redeeming God;
He comes, and bids you hope!
In the midnight of your grief,
Jesus doth his mourners cheer;
Lo, he brings you sure relief;
Believe, and feel him here!

Ye whose loins are girt, stand forth,
Whose lamps are burning bright;
Worthy in your Saviour's worth,
To walk with him in white;
Jesus bids your hearts be clean;
Bids you all his promise prove;
Jesus comes to cast out sin,
And perfect you in love.

And never, never cease;
Angels, and archangels, all
Praise the mystic three in one;
Sing, and stop, and gaze, and fall
O'erwhelm'd before thy throne.
Vying with that heavenly choir,
Who chant thy praise above;
We on eagles' wings aspire,
The wings of faith and love;
Thee, they sing, with glory crown'd;
We extol the slaughter'd Lamb;
Lower if our voices sound,
Our subje^t is the same.

Bid me in thine image rise,
A saint, a creature new:
True, and merciful, and wise,
And pure, and happy too;

That I should in thee be blest;
Should within thine arms divine,
For ever, ever rest.

Let thy will in me be done;
Fulfil my heart's desire,
Thee to know, and love alone,
And rise in raptures higher.
Thee descending on a cloud,

A - while for - get your griefs and fears, And look be - yond this vale of tears, To that ce - les - tial hill.

O God, thy faith - ful - ness I plead: My pre - sent help in time of need, My great de - liv' - rer thou!

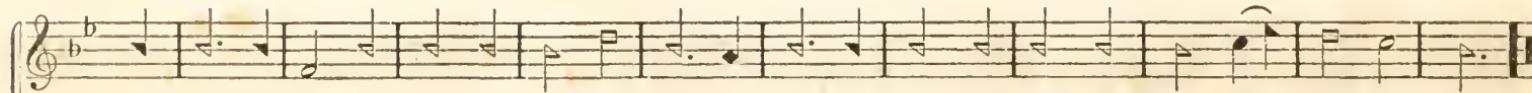

Haste to my aid! thine ear in - cline, And res - cue this poor soul of mine! I claim the pro - mise now!

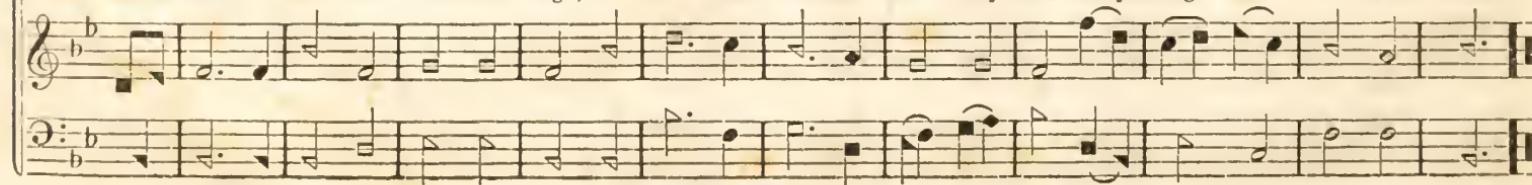

How hap - py are the lit - tle flock, Who, safe be - neath their guar - dian rock, In all com - mo - tions rest!

When war's and tu - mult's waves run high, Un - moved a - bove the storm they lie, They lodge in Je - sus' breast.

Hail! thou once de - spi - sed Je-sus, Hail, thou everlasting King! Thou didst suffer to re - deem us, Thou didst free sal - va-tion bring.

Hail, thou a - go - niz - ing Saviour, Bearer of our sin and shame! By thy merits we find fa - vor; Life is giv - en through thy name.

Righteous God! whose vengeful phials All our fears and thoughts exceed; Big with woes and fiery tri - als, Hanging, bursting o'er our head:

While thou vis - it - est the na - tions, Thy se - lect-ed people spare; Arm our caution'd souls with patience, Fill our humbled hearts with prayer.

Come, thou fount of every blessing, Tune my heart to sing thy grace : { Teach me some melodious sonnet, Sung by flaming tongues a-
Streams of mercy never ceasing, Call for songs of loud-est praise. }

bove : Praise the mount—I'm fix'd upon it ; Mount of thy re - deem - ing love !

Here I'll raise mine Ebenezer,
Hither by thy help I'm come ;
And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wand'ring from the fold of God ;
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed his precious blood !

O ! to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrain'd to be !
Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
Bind my wand'ring heart to thee :
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it ;
Prone to leave the God I love—
Here's my heart, O take and seal it ;
Seal it for thy courts above.

Love divine, all loves ex - celling, Joy of heaven to earth come down; Fix in us thy humble dwell - ing, All thy faith - ful mercies crown!

Jc-sus, thou art all com-pas-sion, Pure unbounded love thou art; Vis - it us with thy sal - va - tion; En - ter every trembling heart.

Come, thou e - ver - last - ing Spirit, Bring to ev' - ry thankful mind All the Saviour's dy - ing merit, All his sufferings for mankind:

True re - cord - er of his pas - sion, Now the liv - ing fire impart, Now reveal his great salvation, Preach his gos - pel to our heart.

Since the Son hath made me free, Let me taste my li - ber - ty! Thee behold with o - pen face, Triumph in thy saving grace!

Thy great will de - light to prove, Glo - ry in thy per - fect love.

Abba, Father, hear thy child,
Late in Jesus reconciled ;
Hear, and all the graces shower,
All the joy, and peace, and power ;
All my Saviour asks above,
All the life and heaven of love.

Lord, I will not let thee go
Till the blessing thou bestow :
Hear my Advocate divine !
Lo ! to his my suit I join :
Join'd to his, it cannot fail :
Bless me ; for I will prevail.

Wea - ry souls that wan - der wide From the central point of bliss, Turn to Je - sus cru - ci - fied, Fly to those dear wounds of his;

Sink in - to the pur - ple flood; Rise in - to the life of God.

Find in Christ the way of peace,
Peace unspeakable, unknown!
By his pain he gives you ease,
Life by his expiring groan;
Rise exalted by his fall,
Find in Christ your all in all.

O believe the record true,
God to you his Son hath given;
Ye may now be happy too;
Find on earth the life of heaven:
Live the life of heaven above,
All the life of glorious love.

A - rise, my soul, a - rise, Shake off thy guil - ty fears, The bleed - ing Sac - ri - fice In my be - half ap - pears;

Be - fore the throne my Sure - ty stands, My name is written on his hands—My name is writ - ten on his hands.

The Lord Je - ho - vah reigns, His throne is built on high; The garments he assumes Are light and ma - jes - ty:

His glo - ries shine with beams so bright, No mor - tal eye can bear the sight--No mor - tal eye can bear the sight.

 feel - ings, at rest is my soul, The tears are all wiped from my eyes.

The cause of my Master propell'd me from home,
 I bid my companion farewell;
 I left my sweet children (who for me do mourn)
 In far distant regions to dwell.

I wander'd an exile and stranger below,
 To publish salvation abroad;
 The trump of the gospel endeavor'd to blow,
 Inviting poor sinners to God.

But when among strangers, and far from my home,
 No kindred or relative nigh,
 I met the contagion, and sunk in the tomb,
 My spirit to mansions on high.

O tell my companion and children most dear
 To weep not for JOSEPH, though gone! [dear,
 The same hand that led me through scenes dark and
 Has kindly conducted me home.

A musical score for "TALLAHASSEE" featuring three staves of music and lyrics. The music is in common time, with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The first staff begins with a treble clef, the second with an alto clef, and the third with a bass clef. The lyrics are integrated into the music, appearing below the notes in three distinct sections. The first section starts with "God on high, And to the earth be peace; Good will henceforth, from heaven to men, Be - gin and ne - ver cease—Good". The second section starts with "will hence - forth, from heaven to men, Be - gin and ne - ver cease— Be - gin and ne - ver cease." The third section starts with a continuation of the melody. The lyrics are written in a cursive hand, matching the style of the title page.
