Allegretto quasi Andante

The first staff of the musical score is written on a single five-line staff. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature (C). The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes, with some measures containing beamed eighth notes. The staff concludes with the word "Tutti" written in a cursive, italicized font above the final notes. Below the staff, there is a dynamic marking "cres: - f" (crescendo to fortissimo) and a small, stylized flourish.

The first system of the musical score for 'The Song of the Lark' is written on a single five-line staff. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody starts with a half note G4, followed by a quarter note A4, and then a half note B4. A slur covers the next two measures: the first contains a quarter note C5 and an eighth note B4, while the second contains a quarter note A4 and an eighth note G4. This is followed by a quarter rest. The next measure contains a quarter note G4. The following two measures each contain a quarter note F4 and a quarter note E4. The next measure contains a quarter note D4. A double bar line follows. The second measure of the system begins with a forte dynamic marking 'ff' and a slur covering the next two measures: the first contains a quarter note C4 and an eighth note B3, while the second contains a quarter note A3 and an eighth note G3. This is followed by a quarter rest. The next measure contains a quarter note F3. The following two measures each contain a quarter note E3 and a quarter note D3. The next measure contains a quarter note C3. The system ends with a double bar line.
