enriched that vertuous minde of yours, knowing the same also to be much delighted with that of Musicke, which peraduenture no leſſe then any of the rest hath been to it as a ladder to the intelligence of higher things: Lo heere vpon I haue presumed to make offer to the same of these ſim-ple Compoſitions of mine! Imitating (Right Honorable) in this, the cuſtome of that old world, who witting incenſe to offer vp to their Gods, made ſhift in feade therof to honour them with Milk. Or as thoſe who being not able to preſent a torch unto the hollie Alters; in ſigne of their deuotion, did light a little candle, and gaue vp the fame. In which notwithstanding did pin more cleerely the affection of the giuer then the worth or value of the giuft it ſelue. May it ſo therefore please your Honor to accept of this ſmall preſent with that good intention wherwith I offer it. Beeſeeching therewithall the Almighty to graunt you the ac-compliſhement of all your honorable deſires. London the xii. of Octo-

TO THE RIGHT HO.
SIR ROBERT CECILL KNIGHT,
ONE OF HIR MAIESTIES HO.
privie Councell.

RIGHT HO.

Mong so many braue & excellēt qualities which have
same also to be much delighted with that of Musick, which peraduenture no less then any of the rest hath been to it as a ladder to the intelligēce of higher things: Lo heere vpon I haue presumed to make offer to the same of these sm-ple Compositions of mine! Imitating (Right Honorable) in this, the custome of that old world, who waiting incense to offer vp to their Gods, made shift in steade therof to honour them with Milk. Or as those who being not able to present a torch unto the hollie Alters in signe of their denotion, did light a little candle, and gave vp the same. In which notwithstanding did shine more clearely the affection of the giner then the worth or value of the gift it selfe. May it so therfore please your Honor to accept of this small present with that good intention whervith I offer it. Bee seeking therwithall the Almighty to graunt you the accomplishment of all your honorable desires. London the xii. of October. 1595.

Your Honors

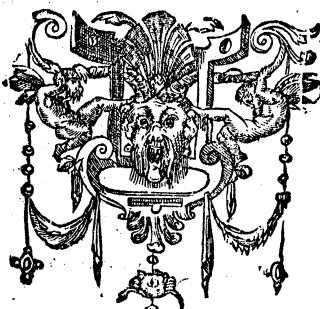

deuoted in all dutie;
