

GOD'S ACRE

SONG

WORDS BY

ERWIN CLARKSON GARRETT

MUSIC BY

CECIL FORSYTH

.60

BOSTON
380-382 Boylston St.

CARL FISCHER, NEW YORK
COOPER SQUARE

CHICAGO
335-339 So. Wabash Ave.

God's Acre

Words by
ERWIN CLARKSON GARRETT

Music by
CECIL FORSYTH

Presto *)

Voice

Piano

R&D. * ***

Moderato tranquillo

I'm dri - vin' backward to the

Jogging along

p

con Pedate

farm— The har - vest day is done, And I'm *) The crack of the whip, the horse shaking its ears and tail.

The poem is printed from "Army Ballads and Other Verses" by kind permission of its author Erwin Clarkson Garrett.

pass - ing by God's A - cre At the sett - ing o' the Sun: And I slow the hom - ing hor - ses— For I

poco cresc.

rit. dim.

must so - li - lo - quize

On that white crop stand - in'

rit. dim.

si - lent A - gainst the crim-son skies.

I

espress.

pp

a tempo

guess there's tares a - plen-ty — And I guess there's lots of chaff, And I

mp simile

guess there's ma - ny stor-ies that Ed make a fel-ler laugh And I p dolce.

guess there's meb-be sto-ries that Ed make a fel-ler weep, And the

mf mp

>pp

Angels kind o' whis-per As a - round the stones they creep.

p p molto tranquillo rit. >pp

2ed. ***

Presto

Well, the 2d.

*

*

Moderato tranquillo

Lord He up and plan - ted And the Har-vest's come to head; (And He

mp

shore is most par - ti-cu-lar When all is done and said.) But I shore is most par - ti-cu-lar When all is done and said.) But I reck-on when it's sift - ed, And the Crop is in the

cresc. al fine

allarg. e marcato >

bin, It 'll be a durned hard sin - ner As the

allarg. e marcato mf f

Lord aint ga - thered in.

ff a tempo

rit.

Rit. *