From Garyone, my happy Home. — Garyone.

N^o 7.

(Air: Garyone.)

Allegretto amoroso.

The score is for three instruments: Violino, Violoncello, and Pianoforte. The Violino and Violoncello parts are written on a single staff with a treble clef for the violin and a bass clef for the cello. The Pianoforte part is written on a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 6/8. The score is divided into two systems. The first system includes dynamic markings p dol. and pizz. in the violin/cello part, and p dol. in the piano part. The second system continues the musical material.
