W. W. WHITNEY'S IMPROVED MELODEONS.

W. W. WHITNEY, Esq.: Dear Sir—Having examined several of your new and elegantly finished Melodeons, I take pleasure in saying I consider them a first-class instrument. They cannot fail to give entire satisfaction.

Yours, very truly,
C. S. CROSSMAN.

From the celebrated Organist, G. W. Morgan, of Grace Church, New York City.

To Mr. W. W. Whitney: DEAR SIR—I tried some of your Melodeons, and can speak highly in praise of them, and at the same time feel confident they will give every satisfaction to any who may purchase them. I remain, dear sir, most faithfully, yours,
G. W. MORGAN.

TOLEDO, OHIO, October 1864.

MR. W. W. WHITNEY:—Your Improved Melodeons are in my opinion, the "Ne Plus Ultra" of Reed Instruments. Their evenness of "tone power" is greater than any similar Instruments I have seen. I take great pleasure in recommending them as the best Melodeons in the market.

L. MATHIAS, Teacher of Music.

For years to come, we believe they will be the favorites with those that want the best.—Advertiser.

TOLEDO, OHIO, October 1864.

MR. W. W. WHITNEY—Dear Sir: I have examined your Improved Melodeons, and I take pleasure in saying that I find in them all the elements which have been so long sought after. Your improvement in the bellows, will, I am sure, make them the most perfect of Reed Instruments.

J. E. GILMAN,

Tuner and Repairer of Organs, Pianos and Melodeons

Exceeds in our estimation every other instrument of this general class.—Telegram.

MR. W. W. WHITNEY, TOLEDO, O.—I wish to express my admiration of the superiority of the Melodeons of your manufacture. The REEDY or NASAL tone usually found in Melodeons is entirely obviated by your new improvements. Wishing you the success you so well deserve.

I am yours Truly,

W. B. THOMPSON, Prof. of Music, N. Y.

W. W. WHITNEY, Dear Sir: I desire, in addition to the numerous testimonials already given to your Melodeons, to add my own. I have examined several that I have found in various places where I have held Musical Conventions, and being familiar with the Instruments offered to the public by other makers, I find yours superior to any other in the purity of TONE, evenness of VOICE, and with greatly superior advantages in the SWELL, and I cordially recommend them to all who wish a first class Instrument.

Yours, J. WILLIAM SUFFERN.

TOLEDO, October, 26th, 1864.

DEAR SIR:—It is with the utmost willingness, that I give my testimony as regards the excellency of your Melodeons. After a thorough acquaintance with the Instruments of other makers, candor compels me to say that those of your manufacture surpass them as regards elasticity of touch; evenness of voiceing; and freedom from all harshness, and thinness of tone. I shall unhesitatingly recommend them in answer to the numerous enquires of purchasers.

Yours Truly,

E. P. SPRAGUE,

Prof. of Music, and Organist of Trinity Church.

The smoothness of the tone makes a beautiful accompaniment for the voice.—Tribune.

Surpass everything in this line we have seen, whether French or American.—Commercial.

Accept Mr. WHITNEY my sincere congratulations. Henceforth Toledo may advantageously compete with any of the larger cities in the construction of Melodeons.

D. DEVIVO,

Opera Manager, N. Y.

Really very effective and beautiful instruments. All that want the best will get "Whitney's."—Blade.

MR. WHITNEY—Dear Sir: After examining the mechanism, and testing the action and tone of your Melodeons, it gives me pleasure to assure you that I consider them, in many respects, superior to those of any other manufacturer with which I am acquainted.

Yours truly,

L. G. BLAISDELL.

Young Ladies' Seminary, Monroe, Mich., Dec. 24, 1864.

Once having seen them, will convince the most skeptical, that they are just what has been long wanting.—Herald.

Never seen anything of the kind, that interested us so much.—Gazette.

I am daily receiving letters similar to those above, from Professional Musicians; also from persons who have the instruments in use. Every Instrument warranted for five years.

These Improved Melodeons received the first Premium over all competitors at the Michigan State Fair, 1865, of both Eastern and Western makes.

I have all the facilities for manufacturing these Melodeons, including steam power and machinery, (every department being under my personal supervision,) and I feel confident with my unsurpassed improvements that I am now placing before the public, a superior instrument, larger, and with an evenness of tone not heretofore obtained by any other Melodeon Manufacturer. The finish and durability of these instruments are second to none.

With my unsurpassed facilities, I hope to continue to furnish these Melodeons at much less than eastern prices.

All orders will secure as prompt attention as if the parties were here to select.
