Musicus Equipratus Academicus,

Being a Compoſition of Two Odes

With VOCAL & INSTRUMENTAL

MUSICK

Perform'd in the THEATRE at

OXFORD

on Monday July the 13.th 1713.

The Words by the Reverend

M.r IOSEPH TRAPP A.M.

and set to Muſick by

WILLIAM CROFT D.r in Muſick

Organiſt & Compoſer to

His MAJESTY

Maſter of the Children of the CHAPEL ROYAL and Organiſt of S.t PETERS WESTMINSTER.

The following Pieces of Musick were Perform'd at OXFORD as a Preparatory Exercise to the taking my Doctor's Degree. And I must always acknowledge the Obliga-tions I have to that Famous University, for the favourable Reception they there met with.

From that time forward they have lain by neglected, as having done their Work and answered the end for which they were Compos'd; and had still done so, had not the Importunity of some Friends, (whose Good will to the Author made them set too great a Value upon his Compo-sitions) prevailed with me to make them publick. If I find they give Satisfaction, I shall be Encouraged to Publish more of the same kind.
