“Was it in June?”

Was it in June that first we dreamed
Still in the garden's evening glow,
And watched the red cloud-pennons blow
Where Sunset's seaward galleons gleamed?

Was it in June my heaven seemed
Only the kingdom of your eyes,
And earth with all Love's guerdon teemed?
Was it in June, or Paradise?

Was it in June, that summer day,
When riverward, thro' filmy sheen
Of woodlands warm with early green
We took the blossom-haunted way,

Like blythesome nymph and lissome fay,
And, drifting in that sweet surmise,
So yesfully you said me nay?
Aye, it was June and Paradise!
