The image displays a page from a handwritten musical manuscript, numbered 21. The page contains ten systems of musical notation, each consisting of a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The notation is dense and complex, featuring many notes, rests, and clefs. The paper is aged and yellowed, with some visible staining and wear. The handwriting is in dark ink, and the overall style suggests a historical manuscript, possibly from the 18th or 19th century. The notation includes various note values, rests, and clefs, and the overall structure is that of a multi-measure rest or a complex rhythmic exercise.

Handwritten musical score on aged paper, page 23. The score consists of ten systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The notation is dense and includes many accidentals and slurs. The paper shows signs of age, including foxing and staining.
