

(Deposited July 18, 1848.
Recorded Vol. 23. P. 323.)

G. P. REED 17 Tremont Row BOSTON.

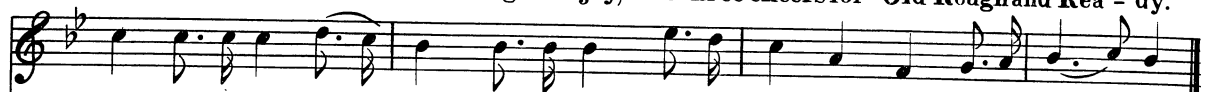

2. The lads at the plough Are in for it now, And the workers are stiff, strong and steady; Bos,

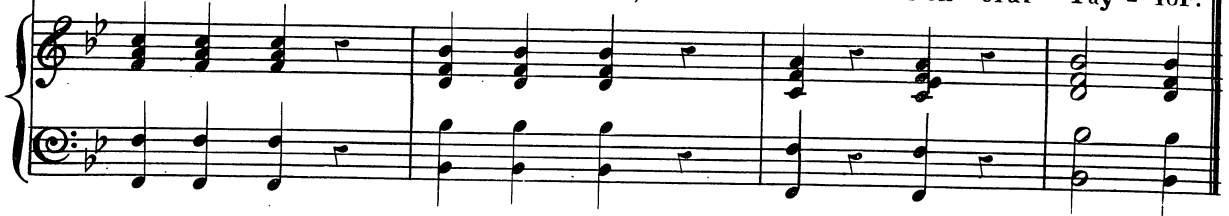

1. Who goes for Old Zack? Said Tom to stout Jack, Why I, says the truehearted sai-lor; Not a mas-ter and boy, All roar-ing with joy, Give three cheers for Old Rough and Rea-dy.

Sawney or Pat, But will throw up his hat, And Hurrah for Gen-eral Tay-lor!

3
Every mountain and plain,
From Texas to Maine,
River, mine, house and towering steeple;
The grave and the gay,
By night and by day—
Hurrah for the man of the People.
Then with heart and hand &c.

4
The girls, always true,
Pretty Sal, and sweet Sue,
Weave their garlands so fragrant and gay;
The hero to grace,
Whose honors we trace,
From the Sabine to strong Monterey.
Then with heart and hand &c.

Ent'd according to act of Congress A. D. 1848 by G. P. Reed in the clerk's office of the district court of Mass.

Primo. Then with heart and hand Throughout the land, We'll Secondo. Then with heart and hand Throughout the land, We'll Basso.

mf

on to the work, firm and stead - - y, The lo - cos we'll rout, Then

on to the work, firm and stead - - y, The lo - cos we'll rout, Then

join in the shout— Hur - rah for old Rough and Read - - y, With join in the shout— Hur - rah for old Rough and Read - - y, With

f

heart and hand, Throughout the land, We'll up to the work, firm and heart and hand, Throughout the land, We'll up to the work, firm and stead - - - y The lo - - cos we'll rout Then

stead - - - y The lo - - cos we'll rout Then

join in the shout Hur - rah for old Rough and Read - - y.

join in the shout Hur - rah for old Rough and Read - - y.

1085