PRAELUDIUM.

The musical score is written for piano in G major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. It consists of four systems of music, each with a grand staff (treble and bass clef). The first system is labeled 'PRAELUDIUM.' and includes the tempo and performance instructions 'All.^o moderato. Cant. firm.' and 'Mit vollem Werke.' The music features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. A 'Ped.' (pedal) marking is present at the beginning of the third system. The score concludes with a final cadence in the fourth system.

First system of musical notation, measures 1-5. The music is in G major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. The right hand features a complex, flowing melody with many sixteenth and thirty-second notes. The left hand provides a steady accompaniment with eighth and sixteenth notes. A measure rest is present in the first measure of the left hand.

Second system of musical notation, measures 6-10. The right hand continues the intricate melodic line. The left hand has a measure rest in measure 6. The notation includes various accidentals and dynamic markings.

Third system of musical notation, measures 11-15. The right hand's melody remains active. The left hand continues its accompaniment. The system concludes with the instruction "Ped. Canon." below the staff.
