We take great pleasure in calling attention to the above collection of Organ Music, feeling confident that no work for this instrument has ever been published, which includes so great a variety of interesting and valuable music.

The selection and adaption of its contents has been made with reference to both the Church and Cabinet Organ, for use in Church service and in the Home. It is not a reprint of Piano Music, every number having been especially arranged for this work, or selected from the very best compositions for the Organ. None of the Selections are too difficult for the amateur, and the professional organist will find many numbers of interest and value, which have never before been published, or are to be found only in large and expensive editions.

While the usual price of Books of its size is $2.00, we have reduced the price to $1.50, and will send a sample copy to any part of the world, post-paid for $1.00: Liberal Discounts made on large lots. Address all orders to
