I LOVE THE MOON.

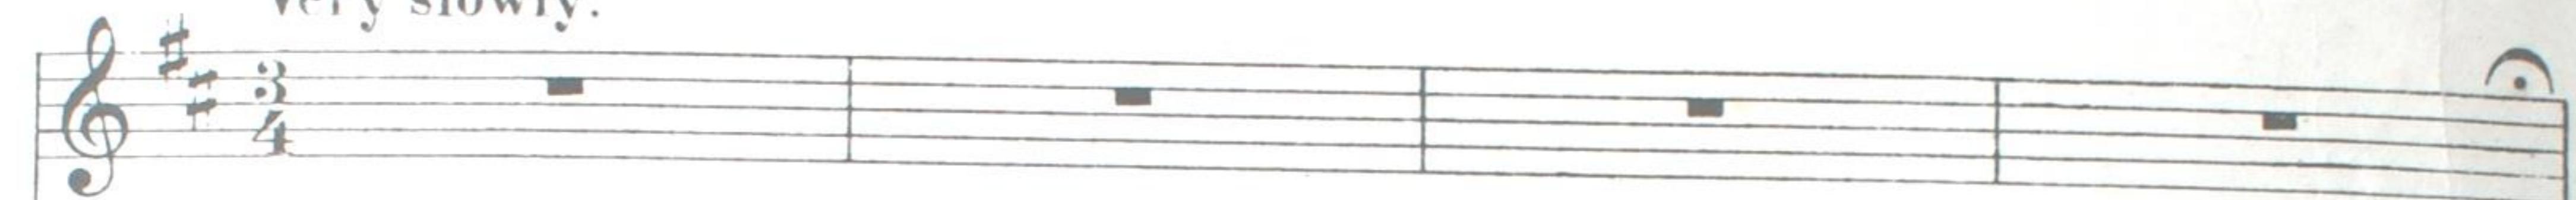

Song.

Words and Music by

PAUL A. RUBENS.

Very slowly.

VOICE.

PIANO.

A three-line musical staff for the piano. The top line has a treble clef, the middle line has a bass clef, and the bottom line has a bass clef. The key signature is two sharps. The first measure starts with a forte dynamic (f). Subsequent measures show a repeating pattern of chords with various dynamics like piano (p), forte (f), and rallentando (rall.). Pedal points are marked with dots under the bass line.

Very slowly.

A single-line musical staff for the voice. The melody consists of eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics are: "I love the moon, I love the sun."

I love the moon, I love the sun.

A single-line musical staff for the voice. The melody continues with eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics are: "I love the for - est, the flow - ers, the fun."

I love the for - est, the flow - ers, the fun.

A single-line musical staff for the voice. The melody concludes with eighth and sixteenth notes. The lyrics are: "I love the for - est, the flow - ers, the fun." A final dynamic instruction "rall." is placed below the staff.

I love the wild birds, the dawn and the dew, But, best of all I love you, I love you!

Very slowly.

Where is the moon? where is the sun? Where are the for - est, the flow - ers, the fun? There are no wild birds, no dawn and no dew, No life, no mu - sic, no love with - out you.

Dedicated to "Phyllis."

I love the Moon.

I love the moon, I love the sun,
I love the forest, the flowers, the fun.
I love the wild birds, the dawn, and the dew.
But, best of all I love you!

Where is the moon? where is the sun?
Where are the forest, the flowers, the fun?
There are no wild birds, no dawn and no dew,
No life, no music, no love—without you!
