

CABLE SONG

Words by DAN. BRYANT.

Arranged by NEIL BRYANT.

Brother Johnny Bull and cousin Vic, We welcome you three fold; And extend the hand of friendship To your jol-ly sea-men hold.

Entered according to Act of Congress AD. 1858 by Firth Pond & Co, in the Clerks office of the District Court of the South² Dis^t of New York

Twice you quarrelled with us, John, And twice you were well matched; So let us live in har-mo-ny, Since we've become at-tach'd. So blow the winds of morn-ing, Our hearts and voices yield, To give three rousing bully cheers, For Cyrus W - Field!

CHORUS.

II

Oh, let there be rejoicing,
 Bring out the fatted calf;
 We'll toast our brother Johnny Bull
 In a glass of "arf and arf."
 United let us ever be,
 For surely we are able,
 Since we are joined together
 By the great Anlantic cable.

CHORUS.

III

We've saved you an expense, John,
 We think you've had enough;
 You needn't board our vessels, John,
 Any longer in the Gulf;
 Respect the laws of nations, John,
 Don't give us cause to vex you,
 If you do, we'll take the cable, John,
 Haul you over and annex you.

CHORUS.

IV

I've got a plan I'll tell to you,
 To cement our friendship fast,
 'Twill unite the two great families,
 And thus forget the past,
 For Buchanan is a bachelor,
 And I really think he'd orter
 Take a trip to England's shore,
 And marry Queen Vic's daughter.

CHORUS.
