

N^o 317

Dep. Augt. 18. 1846

Geo. Willig
Profr

YESTERDAY
A BALLAD Composed by John Blackley
ARRANGED FOR THE GUITAR
BY A. SCHMITZ.

Philadelphia, GEORGE WILLIG, 171 Chesnut St.
Entered according to act of Congress in the Year 1846 by George Willig in the Clerks Office of the District Court of the Eastern District of Pa.

PLAINTIVELY.

SOAVE.
And thou I lov'd art gone Far o ver the dark blue sea; This heart is left a - - lone That on - ly throbb'd for thee; The mf morn ing sun is bright, The flowers a - round are gay; But where is the soft light Thou shed'st on yes - ter - day? But cres.

ESPRESS.

where is the soft light Thou shed'st on yes - ter - day

mf

Colla voce.

dim.

2

We stood amid these bow'rs,
 When last I wept adieu,
 Surrounded by fair flow'rs
 Of many a brilliant hue,
 I saw the glittering tear
 That dimm'd thine eye's bright ray;
 But thou no more art near,
 And past is yesterday,
 But thou no more art near,
 And past is yesterday.

Yesterday, Guitar.