

60
Certificate dated 4 June A.D. 1844
Publication deposited 25 July A.D. 1844

39.

THE WHIG RALLY,
As Sung by
Mr. C. S. Duffield
The Celebrated Whig Vocalist
Original Words adapted to the Popular Air of the
WRECKERS DAUGHTER
by
JOHN H. HEWITT.

Baltimore, G. Willig Jun. 7

Entered according to Act of Congress in the Year 1844 by G. Willig Jr. in the Clerks Office of the District Court of Maryland.
1862

2

CHORUS.

Rally, whigs— rally, whigs— ral-ly, whigs— rally, whigs, See our gallant banners streaming,

f p

Rally, whigs— rally, whigs— rally, whigs— rally, whigs; See the eyes of beauty beaming,

f p

Rally, whigs— rally, whigs— rally, whigs— rally, whigs Come from the east— come from the west— From north and south with glowing breast. Rally, whigs— rally, whigs— ho!

f

p f

SOLO. 3

See the fox's tail is bristling, Fretted by the Ty...ler crew;

All the lo...cos practise whistling, But their mu.sic will not do.

Chorus D. C.

2.

Tyler shouts for annexation,
 What will Polk and Dallas do?
 Oh! such clashing— such vexation,
 How to mend the broken screw.
 Rally, whigs &c.

3.

What's food to us is loco pizen,
 But the fiat has gone forth;
 Shout for CLAY and FRELINGHUYSEN,
 West and east and south and north.
 Rally, whigs &c.

4.

Let them gather all their forces,
 We are ready for the race;
 Clumsy riders— jaded horses,
 Make their prospects "quite a case!"
 Rally, whigs &c.

5.

While the Tariff flag is floating,
 Let these words our motto be—
 "Each man must do his own voting
 If he wants the Country free!"
 Rally, whigs &c.