

7m 100
"SONGS OF THE OLD DOMINION"
Nº 1.

THE MOON IS DANCING ON THE SEA,

A Virginia Serenade

Sung by the

Norfolk Philharmonic Association,

Adapted to

Original Words

by

J. H. HEWITT.

Pr. 25 Cts Net.

BALTIMORE,

Published by Frederick D. Benteen.

W^m T. Mayo New Orleans.

"THE MOON IS DANCING ON THE SEA"

With expression.

PIANO

The moon is dan-cing on the sea, The stars smile in her train; They seem to sing in har-mo--ny An e--cho to our strain, And gent.ly o'er the meadows green, The mid-night zephyrs sigh A song of ho-mage to our queen, While they are pas-sing by. Oh, love ly maid, there's joy in ev-ry star, Look out to night, oh, shame its light And hear our soft gui---tar.

Refrain.

Oh, love-ly maid, there's joy in every star, Look out to night, oh, shame its light And hear our soft gui-tar.

2.

The waves that gently kiss the shore,
 And drink the silvery light,
 Their joyous notes of homage pour
 And praise your charms so bright.
 The night bird, too, has ceased her strain,
 To catch our native lay,
 Then bear it o'er the shadowy plain,
 And give it to the day.

REFRAIN. Oh, lovely maid &c.

3.

Then, maiden fair, arise— arise,
 True hearts your praises sing;
 Love warmly glows 'neath starry skies,
 With balmy airs of spring.
 Then, cheer us with one radiant gaze,
 One word responsive speak,
 And we will praise your eyes bright rays,
 And blushes on your cheek.

REFRAIN. Oh, lovely maid &c.