Op. 54

In tempo di Minuetto (♩-circa 104)

a) Il revisore ritiene che la differenza degli abbellimenti, consistenti in un trillo qui e in un  $\text{tr}$  al passaggio corrispondente otto battute dopo, sia voluta; per conseguenza eseguisce il primo passaggio nel modo seguente:

od anche:

lasciando la scelta. Il modo in cui egli eseguisce il secondo abbellimento viene indicato nella nota a pag. 266 b). La maggior parte delle edizioni non fanno differenza tra il trillo ed il  $\text{tr}$ . Comunque, le varie edizioni non concordano sulla interpretazione del  $\text{tr}$ . Il più frequentemente si trova:

a) The dissimilarity of embellishments, here a tr and at the corresponding place 8 bars later a  $\text{tr}$  is intentional, according to the editor's opinion. Thus he plays here:

but suggests as possible alternatives:

or:

His way of playing the second embellishment is shown in footnote b) page 266. Most editions make no distinction between tr and  $\text{tr}$ . However, the various editions do not agree upon the interpretation of the  $\text{tr}$ . Most frequently one finds:

a) In der Verschiedenheit der Zeichensetzung, hier: tr, an der entsprechenden Stelle acht Takte später aber:  $\text{tr}$ , sieht der Herausgeber eine Absicht. Demgemäß spielt er das erstmalig:

Aber auch:

stellt er zur Wahl. Wie er die zweite Verzierung ausführt, zeigt die Fußnote S. 266 b). Die meisten Ausgaben lassen tr und  $\text{tr}$  gleichbedeutend sein. Die Vorschrift  $\text{tr}$  erfährt aber durchaus keine einheitliche Auslegung. Am häufigsten erscheint:

a) Le tre crome (con la legatura) possono, se occorre, essere eseguite con la mano sinistra con la diteggiatura 1, 3, 2.

b) In questo passaggio, al contrario di quello corrispondente (14 battute prima) non vi è nessun segno di sf. La teoria pedante stabilisce che, quando nel corso di un pezzo un passaggio si ripete, a volte in altro tono, si deve eseguire in modo identico alla prima volta anche se non vi sono le stesse indicazioni. Ma il revisore rifiuta questo principio. (Naturalmente a volte bisogna seguirlo).

a) If need be, the 3 quavers with the slur can also be played with the left hand, fingering 1, 3, 2.

b) No sf signs here, in contrast to the corresponding place 14 bars earlier. The pedantic rule stipulating that a section appearing more than once in a work (sometimes in another key) be always played as marked at its first appearance, if there are no marks when it reappears — this rule is rejected by the editor, in principle. (Of course there are also occasional instances when it should be applied).

a) Die drei Achtel (mit dem Legatobogen) können allenfalls auch von der linken Hand gespielt werden, mit dem Fingersatz 1, 3, 2.

b) Hier, im Gegensatz zu der entsprechenden Stelle (14 Takte früher), keine sf-Zeichen. Die Schulregel, Teile eines Stückes, die in dessen Verlaufe mehrmals vorkommen (nur auf anderer Stufe etwa), immer, wenn die Wiederholung sie ohne Zeichen bringt, so zu spielen, wie sie bei ihrer ersten Erscheinung angegeben sind, diese Regel lehnt der Herausgeber grundsätzlich ab. (Selbstverständlich soll sie gelegentlich auch befolgt werden).

Musical score for the first system, featuring piano and bass staves. The piano part includes fingerings (3, 4, 5, 2, 4, 5, 2, 5, 1) and dynamics such as sf, [sf], and simile. The bass part includes fingerings (2, 4, 2, 4) and a dynamic of f. A tempo marking of  $\text{♩} = 112$  is present.

Musical score for the second system, labeled "I.". The piano part includes fingerings (4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4, 4) and dynamics f, sf, sf, sf. The bass part includes fingerings (1, 1, 5, 4, 3, 2, 2, 5, 1, 3, 1, 4) and a dynamic of f.

Musical score for the third system, labeled "IV." and "I.". The piano part includes fingerings (4, 4, 4, 5, 4, 3, 4, 2) and dynamics p subito and sempre p. The bass part includes fingerings (3, 3, 1, 1, 2, 1, 3, 2, 3, 5, 1, 4, 1, 3, 1) and a dynamic of f. A reference to "(v. p. 267 a)" is included.

Musical score for the fourth system. The piano part includes fingerings (3, 4, 2, 3, 1, 4, 1, 3, 2, 4, 2, 3) and a dynamic of decresc.. The bass part includes fingerings (4, 1, 3, 2, 5, 1, 3, 2) and a dynamic of decresc.. A reference to "(v. p. 267 a)" is included.

a) La maggior parte delle edizioni hanno la seconda terzina in seste la b si b do do re b mi b invece che in ottave, considerate come un errore del manoscritto o dell'edizione originale. Perciò le ottave non sopraggiungono che al terzo quarto. Il revisore lascia libertà di scelta.

a) Most editions have, on the second beat, 3 sixths a-flat b-flat c instead of the octaves which they regard as a slip of the pen in the manuscript or misprint in the First Edition. Consequently, in these editions the octaves begin on the third beat. The editor considers it an open question as to what is right here.

a) Die meisten Ausgaben haben auf das zweite Viertel statt der Triole in Oktaven, die für einen Schreibfehler des Manuskripts oder einen Druckfehler der Originalausgabe gehalten wird, Sexten «as<sup>1</sup>» «b<sup>1</sup>» «c<sup>2</sup>» «c<sup>1</sup>» «des<sup>1</sup>» «es<sup>1</sup>» gesetzt. Die Oktaven treten also erst beim dritten Viertel ein. Der Herausgeber läßt die Frage, was hier richtig sei, offen.

First system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Treble clef, key signature of one sharp (F#). The piece begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The first measure contains a trill marked with a '4' above it. The music progresses through several measures with various dynamics, including pcresc. and sf. Fingerings are indicated with numbers 1-5. The system concludes with a fermata over a chord.

Second system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Treble clef, key signature of one sharp. The system starts with a trill marked '(a) tr' and a '4' above it. Dynamics include p, non cresc., and p dolce. The bass line features a simple accompaniment with some rests. Fingerings are indicated throughout.

Third system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Treble clef, key signature of one sharp. Dynamics include non cresc., p, and cresc.. The treble staff has a complex melodic line with many slurs and ties. The bass line continues with accompaniment. Fingerings are indicated.

Fourth system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Treble clef, key signature of one sharp. Dynamics include non troppo, sf, p, and sempre for-. The treble staff features a highly technical passage with many slurs and ties. The bass line has a steady accompaniment. Fingerings are indicated.

Fifth system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Treble clef, key signature of one sharp. The system begins with the instruction -te e staccato and a first ending bracket labeled 'I.'. Dynamics include f and sf. The treble staff has a melodic line with slurs and ties. The bass line features a complex accompaniment with many slurs and ties. Fingerings are indicated.

Allegretto (♩=circa 126)

The musical score is written for piano in 2/4 time, marked Allegretto with a tempo of approximately 126 beats per minute. It consists of five systems of music, each with a treble and bass clef staff. The score includes various dynamics such as p (piano), sf (sforzando), mf (mezzo-forte), f (forte), pp (pianissimo), and ppp (pianississimo). Articulations include accents, slurs, and trills. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-5. Performance instructions include dolce (sweetly), poco (a little), ten. (tenuto), cresc. (crescendo), decresc. (decrescendo), subito (suddenly), non cresc. (no crescendo), simile (similar), and molto p, dolce (very piano, sweetly). The score concludes with a first ending (1.) and a second ending (2.) marked with a repeat sign.

a) Trillo senza risoluzione (secondo il revisore).

a) Trill without after-beat (in the editor's opinion).

a) Molte edizioni hanno qui un re b (a partire dalla quinta semicroma). Il revisore ritiene che sia invece esatto il re bequadro

b) L'indicazione « espressivo » non può riferirsi che alla sola battuta in cui si trova scritta (la prima volta alla seconda battuta del periodo, la seconda volta alla prima battuta). Se dovesse riferirsi anche a quelle che seguono bisognerebbe stabilire a quante di esse. Non vi possono essere dubbi o obiezioni circa la restrizione dell'indicazione « espressivo » a queste due sole battute. « Espressivo » in questo caso, significa con maggiore sonorità, (ma non forte), più incalzante, più attivo delle battute vicine che devono scorrere tranquille, uguali, senza desideri, quasi impersonali.

a) Many editions have d-flat already here, from the fifth semiquaver on. The editor thinks that d is correct.

b) It seems the indication "espressivo" (here and 3 bars later) can only be meant for the one bar in which it appears (the first time in the second and the second time in the first bar of the 4-bar period). Were this "espressivo" applicable also to the bars which follow, then it would still have to be decided to how many of the bars it should apply. It really would be hard to imagine valid objections and considerations against confining the "espressivo" to the 2 single bars.

"Espressivo" should signify here: stronger (but certainly not loud), with more urgency and more active than the surrounding bars which should flow along quietly, evenly, without weight or want - almost impersonally.

a) Viele Ausgaben haben schon hier «des» (vom fünften Sechzehntel an). Der Herausgeber bekennt sich zu «d».

b) Die Angabe « espressivo » kann eigentlich nur dem einen Takt gelten, in dem sie je vorkommt. (Das erstmalig im zweiten, das zweitemal im ersten Takt des Viertakters). Bezöge man sie auch auf die Takte, die ihr folgen, so müßte immer erst entschieden werden, auf wie viele davon. Gegen die Beschränkung des « espressivo » auf die beiden vereinzelt Stellen sind Einwendungen und Bedenken nicht recht vorstellbar. « Espressivo » sei hier: stärker (aber gewiß nicht laut), drängender, handelnder als die benachbarten Takte, die ruhig, gleichmäßig, leicht, wunschlos, fast unpersönlich dahinfließen sollen.

First system of musical notation. Treble clef, bass clef. Includes fingerings (5, 4, 5, 4), dynamics (poco), and articulation (simile). A slur covers the first two measures.

Second system of musical notation. Treble clef, bass clef. Includes dynamics (cresc., sfp), tempo marking ( $\text{♩} = 126$ ), and first/second endings (I, II). Fingerings (2, 4, 2, 3, 2, 4, 2) and (1, 3) are present.

Third system of musical notation. Treble clef, bass clef. Includes dynamics (p, sfp, ff non legato), tempo marking ( $\text{♩} = 132$ ), and first/second endings (I, IV). Fingerings (3, 2, 4, 2, 4, 2, 4, 2) and (4), (3), (1), (3), (1), (3), (2), (4), (2) are present.

Fourth system of musical notation. Treble clef, bass clef. Includes dynamics (p), tempo marking ( $\text{♩} = 120$ ), and articulation (sopra, 2 simile). Fingerings (2, 3, 2) and (2, 3) are present.

Fifth system of musical notation. Treble clef, bass clef. Includes dynamics (dim., tranq.), first ending (I), and fingerings (3, 2), (2, 3), (2), (3), (2).

a) Anche qui il trillo senza risoluzione.

a) Also this trill without after-beat.

a) Triller auch hier ohne Nachschlag.

a) Riproduciamo qui e nella battuta seguente, per la mano destra la notazione dell'edizione Urtext, quantunque siano sorti dei dubbi circa la sua accuratezza. Il do inferiore della seconda alla terza croma deve esser privo di legatura e perciò ribattuto? Non è probabile (quantunque sia possibile ed abbia una certa originalità); nel caso si possono aggiungere le legature:

Inoltre, osservando la forma ritmica nella mano sinistra delle quattro battute prima dell'ultima, non vien fatto di domandarci se la prima delle battute di cui sopra non debba eseguirsi così?:

Il riferimento alla mano sinistra per giustificare il cambiamento da introdursi alla destra non è accettabile. Perché la destra deve fare esattamente ciò che poi farà la sinistra? Non sarebbe accettabile neanche se dopo questo cambiamento i due passaggi risultassero completamente simili: infatti sussisterebbero sempre delle differenze sensibili (che non è difficile scoprire). Perciò il cambiamento non farebbe raggiungere lo scopo, che inoltre non è né desiderabile né giustificabile, giacché tutta l'opera di Beethoven è piena di ineguaglianze di questo genere e noi le salutiamo e ne godiamo ogni volta come di felici creazioni di un genio. Dunque, per finire, è meglio eseguire questo passaggio nel modo indicato dall'edizione Urtext.

b) Rispettare la corona.

a) In this and the following bar the notation of the right hand follows the Urtext edition, though some doubts as to its correctness have arisen. Should perhaps the lower c (which has no tie from second to third quaver) be played twice? That seems improbable (though conceivable and attractive) and thus one might decide to insert the missing tie:

Furthermore: should perhaps (analogous with the rhythmic pattern of the left hand in the 4 bars before the last) the first of the 2 bars in question be played like this?:

Such conclusive reference to the left hand, as justification for a modification in the right hand, (to have the right hand play — who knows why — exactly the same which the left hand plays later!) would have to be rejected, even if by the rhythmic assimilation of the first 4 bars these would actually conform with the 4 following ones. But that is not so: other considerable differences remain (which are easy to detect). Thus the intervention could not even achieve its aim of total assimilation which, by the way, was never desirable or reasonable, because in Beethoven's works specifically, one finds innumerable instances of dissimilarities of the kind here discussed, and each time one welcomes and enjoys them as signs of particularly felicitous creativity.

Therefore, to conclude: it will, after all, be best to play these bars as the Urtext prescribes.

b) Observe the Fermata.

a) Die Notation, für die rechte Hand, folgt hier und im nächsten Takt der Urtextausgabe, obgleich manche Zweifel an der Richtigkeit dieser Notation entstanden sind. Soll etwa das untere «c», vom zweiten zum dritten Achtel, ohne Haltebogen, also zweimal anzuschlagen sein? Es ist nicht wahrscheinlich (obgleich durchaus denkbar und reizvoll); der Haltebogen mag hier allenfalls zugesetzt werden:

Weiter: soll entsprechend der rhythmischen Gestalt der linken Hand, in den vier vorletzten Takten, der erste der beiden angefochtenen Takte etwa:

heißten? Der rückschließende Hinweis auf die linke Hand, zur Rechtfertigung der Veränderung in der rechten, die, wer weiß nur warum, genau das gleiche vortun soll, was später die linke macht, dieser Hinweis wäre auch unbedingt abzulehnen, wenn die vier ersten Takte (mit den Achteln rechts) bei rhythmischer Angleichung an die vier nachfolgenden eben diesen nun tatsächlich ganz entsprechen würden; es bleibt aber nach der vollzogenen rhythmischen Angleichung der beiden Viertakter ihre sonstige erhebliche Verschiedenheit durchaus bestehen (was nicht schwer zu entdecken ist). Also erreicht der Eingriff gar nicht sein Ziel der Gleichmachung, das übrigens nie erstrebenswert noch begründbar war, denn just das Beethovensche Werk zeigt ungezählte Beispiele von Abweichungen der hier besprochenen Art, und jedesmal werden sie als besonders gelungene schöpferische Züge begrüßt und genossen.

Darum, zum Schluß: es wird das beste sein, die Stelle doch so zu spielen, wie der Urtext sie verlangt.

b) Fermate beachten!
