The musical score is organized into four systems, each consisting of a vocal line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment (grand staff). The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, beams, and slurs. Dynamics like p, pp, f, and cresc. are used throughout. Articulation marks like accents (^) and slurs are present. Fingerings are indicated by numbers 1-5. The key signature has one flat (B-flat).

System 1: The vocal line begins with a p dynamic. The piano accompaniment starts with pp. The first measure of the piano part has a double bar line and a repeat sign.

System 2: Continues the musical themes from the first system.

System 3: The vocal line is marked 2^a Corda. and pp espressivo.. The piano accompaniment is marked pp dolce.. The first measure of the piano part has a double bar line and a repeat sign.

The piano part features a continuous eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more rhythmic bass line in the left hand.
