

A Prayer in the Mountains

Psalm 121

for High Voice and Pianoforte words and music by Michael J. Oczko

A Prayer in the Mountains

Psalm 121

Paraphrase by M.J.O

Michael J. Oczko

for Pastor Murray Gow with Best Wishes

Lento

mf I raise my eyes to the moun-tains and seek a bless-ing there; Oh mp

mp

arpeg. con pedale

6 rit.

Lord, who from the hill-top reigns look down and hear my prayer.

p

10 a tempo

mp mf L.H.

13

R.H. mp

15 mf

Who made the earth, the skies, the deep, Who

mf p

18 mp

slum - bers not and will not sleep but guards Is - ra - el with sword and shield, to

mf

22 mf

e - vil let me ne-ver yield. You, Lord, are con - stant as my p

25 mf

sha - dow; You keep my foot firm on the heath And 28 rit.

steer me from the chasms be - neath. Your sav - ing grace on me be - stow.

mf rit.

32

a tempo mf L.H.

mp

34 f

From rit. cantabile

R.H.

36 a tempo

cold - est moon and bla - zing sun, By day, by night pro -

mf

39

- tect me. Stead-fast in Your ways di - rect me That 42

with You I may be as one. I raise my eyes to the moun-tains And seek a bless-ing mp

rit.

f arp.

47

there, Oh Lord, who from the hill - top reigns Look down and hear my

mf

p rit.

51

prayer.

a tempo

molto rit.

mf

p