

Also Sung by MISS PHYLLIS PORTER

Audley & Lower St.
Wellington

A-N-Z-A-C

*The Great Musical Success
in J.C. Williamson's Ltd*

Brilliant Pantomime

THE HOUSE THAT JACK BUILT.

*Produced by Chas. A.
Wenman*

Words & Music by Tom Armstrong.

Sung by CONSTANCE CAYLEY.

*Published by Albert & Sons
Sydney, London
New York*

5

ALBERT'S MUSIC STORES.
THE LARGEST IN AUSTRALIA
137-9 KINGS
SYDNEY

2/-
NET.

Audrey Leary
Lower Hutt
Wellington

ANZAC.

(Australian-New Zealand Army Corps.)

Words & Music by Tom Armstrong.

Marcia.

f mf

Far a way in Gall ip ol i Where our he roes Stal wart men of the Southern Cross Honored be thy fell name Aus There's a name New booked for his tor y

name tral ian, New Zea land Army Corps

A N Z A C it spells Our King said
The N world has learned your fame Teach your they did not die in vain : : : On a for eign child ren the deeds they've done : : : On the land and strand sea . . . It was the Brit ain's will, and they're Brit ons And the name they've made, like the Light Bri .

still grade and will they fought live for on an Em-pire his - to - grand ry

Chorus.

An - zac, An zac. long live that glor ious name . . .

An - zac, An - zac, that's where they played the game - - - And now when the war is ov - er, and peace a - gain there'll be We see You'll find one name on the scroll of fame, that's A - N - Z - A - C C sf Drum cresc

f