

4846, C, L

THE KNOVE OF THE GOOD AND TRUE
SONG
BY J. P. WEBSTER.

NEW YORK.
C. H. DITSON & CO. 711 BROADWAY.
BOSTON, D. DITSON & CO.

Chicago,
Lynn & Healy.

Cinn.
J. Church & Co.

Boston.
J. C. Haynes & Co.

Phil?
Lee & Walker.

THE LOVE OF THE GOOD AND THE TRUE.

Words by S.F.B.

Music by J.P. WEBSTER.

Cantabile amoroso.

Ped: * Ped: * Ped: *

1. I sat at my win-dow one evening, A watching the sunset's
 2. Her garments were white as the snow-flake That drifts from the fields of
 3. Then I thought of the young hearts a-bout me, The young eyes that look'd in
 4. Since then, though I see not, the an-gel I know at my side doth

Ped:

gold; And think-ing of ones I was lov-ing With Heav'n, Her hair was a won-der-ful glo-ry By mine, And que-ried if seeds I had planted Would stand, And cheers me when doubt-ing by touches Of love that can nev - er grow cold, When an an - gel, de-scend-ing be-shafts of the sum - mer sun riven, And her face like a li - ly that blos - som in flow - ers di - vine; Then I bend - ed my head to the love from her hea - ven - ly hand; A whis - per of love ev - er

- side me, Seem'd watching the gold and the blue, And she o - pens White heart to the touch of the dew, As she ease - ment, I prayed for Love's guid - ance a - new, And I strengthens; My faith that is weak I re - new, And I whisper'd, "Oh Teacher, pray lead them To the love of the Good and the True."

 whisper'd, "Oh Teacher, pray lead them To the love of the Good and the True?"
 promised the an-gel to lead them To the love of the Good and the True.
 strive with the an-gel to lead them To the love of the Good and the True.

CHORUS.

5

AIR.

ALTO.

TENOR.

BASS.

