PROLOGUE (Recitation)

THE LANDING OF THE PILGRIMS No. 2. INTRODUCTION AND ENTRANCE OF PILGRIMS

THE BLEAK SHORE

*) Trumpet (in distance)(Echo) Allegro moderato (♩ = 124)

The musical score for 'THE BLEAK SHORE' is written for piano and trumpet. It consists of four systems of music. The first system shows the trumpet playing a melody in the treble clef, with piano accompaniment in the bass clef. The tempo is marked 'Allegro moderato' with a quarter note equal to 124 beats per minute. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The second system continues the piano accompaniment with a melody in the treble clef. The third system features a piano accompaniment with a melody in the treble clef, marked with a forte (f) dynamic. The fourth system concludes the piece with a piano accompaniment and a melody in the treble clef, marked with a ritardando (rit.) dynamic.

THE DAUNTLESS ADVANCE

The Pilgrims begin to appear at back, men with muskets leading the advance, guarding the women and children.

(The Motive of Determination)

Moderato deciso (♩ = 100)

The musical score for 'THE DAUNTLESS ADVANCE' is written for piano. It consists of one system of music. The tempo is marked 'Moderato deciso' with a quarter note equal to 100 beats per minute. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The score features a piano accompaniment with a melody in the treble clef, marked with a mezzo-piano (mp) dynamic.

*) The Trumpet and Drum parts should be memorized. (Parts obtainable from publishers.)

First system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Dynamics: mf (mezzo-forte) and cresc. (crescendo). The music features complex chordal textures with many beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes.

Second system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Dynamics: ff (fortissimo). The texture continues with dense, beamed chords.

Third system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Dynamics: f (forte) and ff (fortissimo). The music maintains its complex, beamed texture.

Fourth system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Dynamics: ff (fortissimo) and f (forte). The texture remains dense and complex.

Fifth system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Tempo marking: Meno mosso (less motion). The texture begins to simplify slightly but remains complex.

Sixth system of musical notation. Treble and bass staves. Tempo marking: molto rit. (molto ritardando). The music concludes with a final complex chordal texture.

(They fall to their knees, arms upraised in devout gratitude.)

Andante molto con divozione

First system of music, Andante molto con divozione. The score is in 4/4 time, key of D major. It features a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. The music is marked ff (fortissimo) and includes a sed. (sedes) instruction. The melody is characterized by wide intervals and a slow, reverent feel.

(They rise, move about and show keen interest and delight in their surroundings.)

Second system of music, più animato. The tempo and mood shift to a more lively and expressive character. The music is marked f (forte) and mf (mezzo-forte). It includes a sed. instruction and a mf marking. The melody is more active and rhythmic.

Moderato con espressione (♩ = 88)

Third system of music, Moderato con espressione (♩ = 88). The tempo is moderate with a focus on expression. The music is marked mf (mezzo-forte) and f (forte). It includes a sed. instruction and a mf marking. The melody is more active and rhythmic.

(The younger men, women and children gradually exit

Fourth system of music, cresc. poco a poco. The music gradually increases in volume and intensity. It is marked f (forte) and includes a sed. instruction. The melody is more active and rhythmic.

at back, later to return with supplies.)

Fifth system of music, dim. poco a poco. The music gradually decreases in volume and intensity. It is marked ff (fortissimo) and mf (mezzo-forte). It includes a sed. instruction and a mf marking. The melody is more active and rhythmic.

Lento (Brewster steps forward, doffing hat.)

Sixth system of music, Lento. The tempo is slow and the mood is solemn. The music is marked p (piano) and mf (mezzo-forte). It includes a sed. instruction and a mf marking. The melody is more active and rhythmic.

(Trumpeters and Drummers stand in position to follow Conductor.)(Standish blows on a silver whistle as signal for Drill)Trumpets with troopsBrisk March timeOrchestra(The march actually begins on stage)Drums with troops(Troop Drums play throughout)ff

The first system of the musical score for 'Musketters' Drill'. It features three staves: a top staff for Trumpets with troops, a middle staff for the Orchestra, and a bottom staff for Drums with troops. The key signature is one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 2/4. The music begins with a forte (f) dynamic. The Trumpets and Drums play a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes. The Orchestra provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines. The system concludes with a first ending marked '1.' and a second ending marked '2.' leading to a 'Fine' instruction.

The second system of the musical score. It continues the three-staff arrangement. The dynamics include ff (fortissimo) and f (forte). The music features complex rhythmic patterns with many beamed notes. The system ends with a first ending marked '1.' and a second ending marked '2.' leading to a 'Fine' instruction.

The third system of the musical score. It continues the three-staff arrangement. The dynamics include f (forte). The music features complex rhythmic patterns with many beamed notes. The system ends with a first ending marked '1.' and a second ending marked '2.' leading to a 'D.S.' (Da Capo) instruction.
