

Softly, Lightly, Sweetly Sing

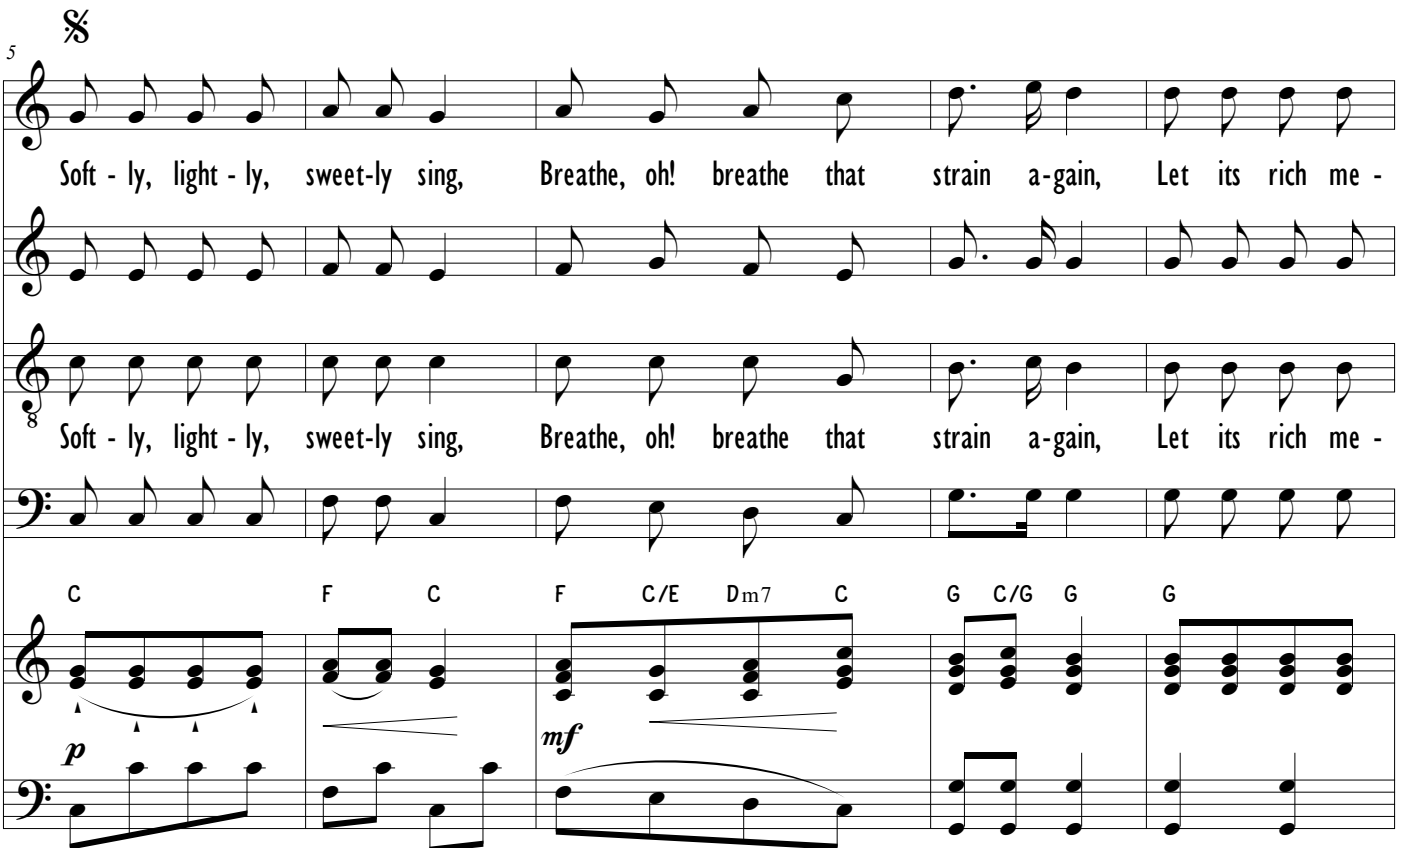

Words by
T. M. Newton

Music by Joseph P. Webster

Moderato assai

5

Soft - ly, light - ly, sweet-ly sing, Breathe, oh! breathe that strain a-gain, Let its rich me -

Soft - ly, light - ly, sweet-ly sing, Breathe, oh! breathe that strain a-gain, Let its rich me -

C F C F C/E Dm7 C G C/G G G

p mf

10 Fine

lo - dious ring, Ech - o back from plain to plain. 1. Like the gold - en
2. Oh the sun - ny

lo - dious ring, Ech - o back from plain to plain. 1. Like the gold - en
2. Oh the sun - ny

G C F F/C C C/G G7 C C

14

tints of morn - ing, Or the sil - v'ry rip - pling wave, Like the hours of child - hood And the bright hopes of youth - ful glee, Oh the tints of morn - ing, Or the sil - v'ry rip - pling wave, hours of child - hood And the bright hopes of youth - ful glee,

C/G G F C G G7

17

pur - ple hues a - dorn - ing, Flow'rs that decked thy moth - er's well re - mem - bered wild wood Where we wan - dered wild and 8 Like the pur - ple hues a - dorn - ing, Flow'rs that decked that decked thy moth - er's Oh the well re - mem - bered wild wood Where we wan - dered wan - dered wild and

C G7 C/E F C/E C G7

p

20

grave. Lo with - in thine eye is beam - ing, free; Youth - ful hopes have all been bro - ken,

8 grave. Lo with - in thine eye is beam - ing,
free; Youth - ful hopes have all been bro - ken,

C G C F

23

Pen - sive thoughts of dear ones fled, And tho' round the lights are Hushed the friends of ear - ly love, But kind mem - 'ry bears a

8

C C/G G G

D.S. al Fine

26

gleam - ing, Thou art mus - ing on the dead. Then to - ken, That we'll meet them on all a - bove. Then gleam - ing, gleam - ing, Thou art mus - ing mus - ing on the dead. Then to - ken, to - ken, That we'll meet them meet them all a - bove. Then

8

G 7 C/E F F m Em C C G 7 C

p