

DE OLE UMBRELLA.

ARRANGED FOR THE BANJO
BY HARRY ANGEL.

WRITTEN AND COMPOSED BY CORNEY GRAIN.

VOICE.

BANJO.

1. Granddad's gone where de good niggers go And he's left me his ole um -
2. Di - nah was such a &c.
3. Ole umbrella's been a &c.

- brel - la It's ten foot wide and one half's red, and the oder two halves is yel - la And un - derneath de ole day long I, play on de ole ban - jo... To de little piccaninies and de pretty yella gals For dey all love Un - cle Joe! Come under de ole um - brel - la; Come a - long, pic - ca - nin - nies, do,

Hark! to Un - cle Joe a - sing - in' Room for all of you!

+1 2 +1 2 +1 2 +1 2

4th VERSE.

When de wool on de top of de head am white as the li - ly white snow..... Time to makeway for de young folks, Di - nah, Time for de ole folks to go..... Then when de sun am a - sink in' fast and de night is close at hand Ole umbrel - la am quite worn out then it's time for de Hap - py Land. Shut up de ole um - brella Hang up de ole ban - jo 1st time. 2nd time.

CHORUS.

Hark! de piccaninnies all am singin' Good-bye, Un - cle Joe! Joe! Come After soft repetition of Chorus of Verse 4, burst into final Chorus.