Vivace

A handwritten musical score on aged paper, featuring ten staves of music. The notation is in a historical style, likely from the 18th or 19th century. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is common time (C). The music is written in a single system, with each staff containing a different part. The notation includes various note values, rests, and dynamic markings. The first staff has a tempo marking 'Vivace' at the beginning. The music is characterized by frequent sixteenth and thirty-second notes, suggesting a fast and lively tempo. There are some corrections and erasures visible in the notation, particularly in the first and third staves. The paper shows signs of age, including discoloration and some wear at the edges.

This is a handwritten musical score for a string quartet, consisting of four systems of two staves each. The notation is dense and includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, slurs, and dynamic markings. The first system begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The second system features a large slur over a triplet of eighth notes in the first staff. The third system includes a 'p' (piano) marking. The fourth system ends with a 'f' (forte) marking and a double bar line. The handwriting is fluid and characteristic of 18th or 19th-century musical notation.

Tempo di Menuetto

This is a handwritten musical score for a Minuet in G major. The score is written on ten systems of staves. The first system begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 3/4 time signature. The tempo is indicated as 'Tempo di Menuetto'. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, slurs, and dynamic markings like 'f' (forte). A harp part is indicated by the word 'harp:' on the sixth system. The score is written in a cursive, handwritten style on aged paper.
