The musical score consists of two systems, each with a treble and bass staff. The first system is labeled 'Facilité' and the second 'rinf:'. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The 'Facilité' section features a treble staff with a melodic line and a bass staff with a rhythmic accompaniment. The 'rinf:' section includes a treble staff with a melodic line and a bass staff with a rhythmic accompaniment. The score is written in a style typical of 19th-century musical notation.

Musical score for the piano accompaniment of "L'Espresso" by Franz Liszt. The score is in 3/4 time, key of D major, and consists of 12 measures. The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more complex, often sixteenth-note, accompaniment in the left hand. The score includes dynamic markings such as "rinf." (rinforzando) and "Ped." (pedal), as well as performance instructions like "loco" and "poco ritenuto".

The image shows a page from a musical score for the piano introduction of 'L'Espresso' by Franz Liszt. The score is written for piano (p) and includes a 'loco' section. The tempo and mood are indicated as 'molto appassionato ed espressivo'. The key signature is D major (two sharps) and the time signature is 2/4. The score features a variety of musical notations, including eighth and sixteenth notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The 'loco' section is marked with a 'loco' symbol and a key signature change to D minor (two flats). The score is presented in a clear, legible format with a dashed line indicating the end of the page.
