ARABIAN RAG

By GEORGE GOULD

Allegro moderato

mf p-mf

Tom Tom quasi stacc

The musical score consists of seven systems of piano notation. Each system has a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The first system includes the tempo marking 'Allegro moderato' and dynamic markings 'mf' and 'p-mf'. Below the first system, the text 'Tom Tom quasi stacc' is written. The score features a variety of musical notations, including chords, single notes, and melodic lines. The key signature has two flats, and the time signature is 2/4. The piece concludes with a final chord marked with a fermata.

The musical score is written for piano in 2/4 time, featuring a Trio section. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The score consists of seven systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The first system begins with a p-f melodie marcato marking. The second system includes a cresc (crescendo) marking. The third system starts with mf (mezzo-forte). The fourth system features a first and second ending bracket, with a ff (fortissimo) marking at the end of the second ending. The fifth system begins with mf. The sixth system starts with f (forte). The seventh system begins with mf, followed by p dim (piano, diminuendo), and ends with a p ff-p (piano, fortissimo, piano) dynamic sequence.
