NOCTURNO.

Fr. Hermann, Op. 26.

Introduction.

The Introduction consists of two systems of music. The first system is in 3/4 time, marked mf, and features a treble staff with a melodic line containing triplet figures and a bass staff with a simple accompaniment. The second system continues the melody in the treble staff, marked f, with a more complex accompaniment in the bass staff.

This section continues the Introduction. The treble staff features a more active melodic line, while the bass staff has a simple accompaniment. The tempo changes to precipitando and then to a tempo p.

Andante.

The Andante section begins with a treble staff marked mf, featuring a melodic line with triplet figures. The bass staff has a simple accompaniment.

The final section of the Andante continues the melodic line in the treble staff, marked f, with a simple accompaniment in the bass staff.

First system of musical notation. The treble staff begins with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature. The music features a melodic line with a half note and a quarter note, followed by a series of eighth notes. The bass staff has a whole note chord, followed by a series of eighth notes. The tempo marking ritard. is present in the first measure, and a tempo appears in the second measure.

Second system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melodic line with a half note and a quarter note, followed by a series of eighth notes. The bass staff has a whole note chord, followed by a series of eighth notes. The tempo marking a tempo is present in the first measure.

Third system of musical notation. The treble staff begins with a key signature change to one flat (Bb) and a common time signature. The music features a melodic line with a half note and a quarter note, followed by a series of eighth notes. The bass staff has a whole note chord, followed by a series of eighth notes. The tempo marking rit. is present in the first measure, and fa tempo appears in the second measure.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melodic line with a half note and a quarter note, followed by a series of eighth notes. The bass staff has a whole note chord, followed by a series of eighth notes. The tempo marking mf is present in the first measure.

Fifth system of musical notation. The treble staff continues the melodic line with a half note and a quarter note, followed by a series of eighth notes. The bass staff has a whole note chord, followed by a series of eighth notes. The tempo marking f is present in the first measure, and mf appears in the second measure.

Sixth system of musical notation. The treble staff begins with a key signature change to one flat (Bb) and a common time signature. The music features a melodic line with a half note and a quarter note, followed by a series of eighth notes. The bass staff has a whole note chord, followed by a series of eighth notes. The tempo marking f is present in the first measure, ritard. in the second measure, and a tempo f in the third measure.

The musical score consists of six systems of staves. The first system shows a treble staff with a melody and a bass staff with a rhythmic accompaniment. The second system includes the marking ritard. and infa tempo. The third system features a più stretto marking. The fourth system includes a rit. marking. The fifth system shows a f dynamic. The sixth system concludes with a p dynamic and a double bar line with a fermata.
