A musical score page featuring five staves of music. The first three staves are soprano voices, the fourth is bass, and the fifth is basso continuo. The vocal parts sing in Latin, with lyrics including "hae pro-mi - sis - ti, et se - mi-ni e - - jus.", "A - brahae pro-mi - sis - ti, et se - mi-ni e - - jus.", and "A - bra - haepromi - sis - ti et se - mi-ni e - - jus.". The basso continuo staff shows harmonic bass lines and crotchets.

The image shows a page from a musical score for 'Ave Maria' by Franz Schubert. The vocal parts are written in three staves: soprano (top), alto (middle), and bass (bottom). The soprano part begins with 'Ave maria' and has a melodic line with eighth-note patterns. The alto part follows with 'gratia plena', also with eighth-note patterns. The bass part enters with 'Dominus tecum', providing harmonic support. The piano accompaniment is in the bottom staff, featuring sustained bass notes and eighth-note chords. The music is set in common time and includes dynamic markings like 'p' (piano) and 'f' (forte). The vocal entries are staggered, creating a sense of dialogue between the voices.
